We do have a few requirements:

Code No deal disputes.

Account must be 2 y/o

1000 posts.

No rats.

So it's been a bit since we have opened up recruitment.

We're not going to use a "canned" application format.

We'll leave the application format up to you, make your application how you'd like.

Fish - April 20, 2022, 5:51 pm

It's definitely been a while, good luck everyone on your application!

I was in The Brotherhood where I worked with Aura and Roger Waters in the White Hat Help Section for a pretty long time before my break. One of the without a doubt best groups I've been apart of since my account creation here on HF. Not only was it extremely active, the tutorials and help throughout HF was unmatched. I would comeback to The Brotherhood in a heartbeat.

Roger waters is still here however under a different name.

And Aura is still a member of the brotherhood

I've reconnect with Roger on Gary Clark Jr. , only member I've ever bought a gift for on HF and he gets a new account.

I do miss Aura, he isn't as active so I haven't had the pleasure of talking with him again. One of the most HQ members on HF of all times.

Demize - April 20, 2022, 7:43 pm

Looking forward to seeing some new faces in the brotherhood, can't wait to see who applies.

Bankrupt - April 20, 2022, 7:58 pm

top tier group with top tier members, glad to see a recruitment opportunity pop up

[$(5)$] - April 20, 2022, 8:57 pm

Open recruitment for a truly OG group. Appreciate being a member. Recommend hopping on this if you have had interest in the group previously.

Fortunate - April 21, 2022, 1:17 am

Leave your applications in. The Brotherhood is truly one of the best groups to ever exist on HF.

Vip?r - April 21, 2022, 1:20 am

Nice to see brotherhood around. Glad to see you're still around as well Illuminati.

Zeus - April 21, 2022, 3:38 am

Are people who fake valor allowed in the group?

Allelujah - April 21, 2022, 6:15 am

Good luck with finding the members you're looking for!

Masoom - April 21, 2022, 10:39 am

I'm 25 and I enjoy salt pepper and a little bit of ketchup on my bacon egg and cheese sandwich. Turkey bacon rulez. Mayo isn't necessary

'I like the userbar'

- My application.

Komodo - April 21, 2022, 4:50 pm

I'll go ahead and be the first to write a proper application, instead of adding further to the comments of quality The Brotherhood is.

Name:
Komodo

Age:
Old

Activity:

I'm pretty active lately here on HF. I've had 1,347 posts and 19 threads within the last month. I will occasionally not be as active as I usually am when I'm working 3-4 days in a row, 12 hour shifts.

Occupation:

I work inside of an Emergency Department of a hospital.
I retired from the military a couple of years ago and decided to stay close to what I know and do military contracting.

Site Contributions:

I try to giveaway as much as I can including knowledge. I've written several medical related threads in the Health Wise section, as well as previously running multiple Beginner Hacking Helpdesks back in the day. I'm always looking for more ways to give back, and have multiple things planned for the future between myself, groups, and friends.

Dean Winchester? - April 22, 2022, 5:14 am

I was in the brotherhood 4? 5? years ago and it was a good time.. Idk if anyone remembers me I've been closed for quite some time

I used to be very active but due to changes in my life the past 4 years it is unlikely that my activity will be comparable to what it was back then; I will still check in and likely post a couple times a day!

I would very much like to join to maybe reconnect with people I spoke to regularly all those years ago !! Or connect with new people ofc!

Rionxee - April 24, 2022, 7:49 pm

I am Rionxee, specifically, my goals are to expand my network and meet different people. I'm looking to be able to incorporate great informative and substantive discussions with others while positively expanding the membership of the group.

I am a PhD student in the field of economics that has just been granted a full class load on a step up from TA and lecturer. I'm extremely interested in politics, philosophy, and economics - anything relevant or historical. My current work revolves around researching shadow markets and global black market activities as well as investigating their interconnectedness and global policy/enforcement outcomes from their interactions.

Besides that I am also an amateur sommelier, I love wine and alcohol in general. I currently have my Wine and Spirit Education Trust Level 2 certification and I'm studying under a master sommelier to enter the Court of Master Sommeliers to begin in-depth wine studies.

In my free time, I usually enjoy being at the lake, longboarding, mountain biking, and enjoying some good food with friends.

It's nice that you are open recruiting and give you a chance to join your group? Let me take this opportunity to submit my candidacy for membership. And by the way, say a few words about yourself?

My name is Chris, I am 30 years old and I am passionate about computer science and hacking in general. My interests include: computer forensics, OSINT and other reconnaissance methods, wireless network security, OPSEC and anonymization of operations, APT (Advanced Persistent Threats), Social engineering. He is also an amateur researcher and pro-bono advising on security issues, intrusion analysis and security incidents, forensics, implementation of effective security policies in the company (I largely do it for friends running their businesses on the Internet and friendly entrepreneurs who want to learn how to protect yourself from attacks, how to detect them, what to watch out for and how to minimize losses related to security incidents. But I also sometimes help with things like SEO and implementing effective advertising). I've been on HackForums for over two years, I came here while searching for a solution to my router problem. Since then, many threads and posts have passed and I am still here and I must honestly admit that joining this community was a good choice. If only time permits, I am very active on the forum and I try to give wherever I can, using my knowledge and experience, but also learning from others or simply talking to people here. In my free time I like reading books, walking, listening to podcasts, audiobooks, participating in webinars, spending time with loved ones or carrying out my projects. I also like attending seminars and conferences devoted to cybersecurity and the IT industry (NetCamp, Bisides Warsaw PROIDEA Events and EXATEL conferences. I would like to go to DEFCon one day, but it's a long way for me?).

And all in all, that would be about me, I just wanted to say that it would be fun to be part of this fantastic group. Thanks for your time and for reading this long post?

Regards?

Was in brotherhood before. I like to think I am a useful member in most groups.

If I am welcomed I would be grateful. If not brotherhood is one of those HQ long lasting groups that it's an honor to be a part of
