Thread: MAKE MONEY & FAMOUS FRIENDS! - Easy Method with Bonuses - WORLDWIDE - Fully Legal

Koyote - April 21, 2022, 5:13 am

Hello! Today I am sharing with you my personal method, one that I have used for years now and has shown no signs of slowing down or saturation. It is a totally legitimate service that you can offer, that takes little to no skill whatsoever, and can make you a very popular person in the world of celebrity! This method is my main hustle, makes me the most money, and has been the most reliable method I have ever used.

This is a 30 page ebook, with examples and clear instructions so you cannot go wrong. The bonus methods are an additional 13 pages of valuable info to propel you even further, so you can enter this world fully armed and ready to go. A lot of time and effort has gone into getting this right for you, so you can rest assured you won't need anything else after buying my ebook(s).

Questions:

Why am I selling this?

Well, this method cannot get saturated in my opinion due to the way the world has become reliant on social media, and with how many celebrities we churn out each year. As long as there are humans with fans on this planet, this method will be viable and will earn BIG. I've been able to rely on it to make enough money to live on, and helped friends do the same, and it's time to share it with HF. I can make money from the sales of the method and still not affect my bottom line, so it only makes good financial sense to me to sell it here.

Is it really that easy?

I went into it with some skills and knowledge already, but I soon became aware that you don't need it to make money. The friends I put on had zero experience, and are making regular significant amounts each week from offering this service now, after just a couple of days of mastering it.

Is it actually safe and legal?

Definitely. Nothing you will do will be immoral or illegal in the slightest, and you will be providing a legitimate and needed service.

Do I have to invest/buy services to resell?

Not at all! You will be doing all of this yourself without investment. There are some tools you can pay for to make it a little quicker/easier, but it's absolutely not necessary and you can honestly do this with no money apart from buying the method.

Why is the price so high?

Two reasons; firstly, I want to make some money back for the effort I've put into making this ebook, as I've put a lot of information and time into it, and secondly I don't want people to just start this, give up and or let people down which could potentially affect how the service is viewed, so I'm selling it at a high price as I know those who will be willing to pay, will be willing to actually do it. This is a premium method deserving of a premium price.

What does mentoring include?

According to my availability/online hours, I will be walking you through it step by step and showing you how to get started. I will coach you in how to approach potential clients, how to get them in your first conversation, and how to set them up as long term clients so you get regular payments. Anyone who pays for mentoring will also get some potential clients pointed their way when my work load is too high, as a thank you and a help to myself also.

Will I really befriend celebrities?

You genuinely will. It's explained in detail in my ebook(s), but due to the nature of this method it's helped me befriend a good number of high profile people, and it's paid off in more ways than just financially. Anything can happen with this.

Vouch Copies:

I will not be giving out free vouch copies, but I will offer one or two to a high profile (Ub3r or above) user at a 50% discount. This is to protect the method and also to ensure reviews are legitimate and not just the standard "read this and it seems legit" posts. Please do not beg for vouch copies.

If you have any legitimate questions please feel free to PM me or post on the thread.

In my opinion the method is fully legal, easy to learn and can't be saturated.

You will learn a very useful skill, which can provide real value for anyone having a public profile. The style TheCuriousCoyote is approaching this kind of work is way more lucrative than being on some freelancing website like Fiverr doing random work for random people. You will be able to make real connections and real friends which can lead you into much greater opportunities and honestly being friends with your clients is one of the most fulfilling work experiences you can have.

Even though I am not interested in this kind of niche, I still got something out of reading the ebook. The story behind it was inspiring to me and gave me a new perspective on how to market myself and provide value for others. It truly stands out from other ebooks.

Very interested. However, due to my caution when dealing I will wait for vouches.

Edit: I am already followed by a few people with several million followers that are famous, perhaps this would help me with the method?

No problem, and understandable! Thanks for expressing your interest, and I'm more than happy to answer any questions publicly or privately.

As for your question here, that would definitely help you! It's not necessary and I've been able to set friends up with their own personal >100 follower accounts, and they've been able to operate very well and earn, but by having some famous followers it'll definitely boost your standing, so to speak. This has a kind of snowball effect too, so you'll end up with a lot more high profile followers which will generate a fair bit of trust by association.

All explained in the method! You gain celebrity friends via the method, offer them services and monetise them further to scale up.

Haha good question! You will be working with more of the smaller celebrities to start but still with decent followings and reputations, and I only focus on those in the US and UK myself but you could definitely make this work even more so with those types you mentioned, and use that to boost things. The beauty of the method, which I've tried to demonstrate in the ebook and with my own use of it, is that you'll start off with smaller ones and it has a snowball kind of effect where you'll end up gaining more and more contacts of increasing popularity and standing.

So any earnings proof? How much money does this generate you with x amount of time invested? Do you have any proof you do have a strong relationship/network with said celebs other than some random follows?

I've included a screenshot in the opening image of the incoming PayPal payments I've had, but I'm going to be uploading some new proofs once I've got some more in this week so I can demonstrate the regularity. Time wise, you're looking at a few hours a week, and if you want to take it to another level a few hours a day and you can make it a full time thing. This is a legitimate job and service, and going about it in a novel way to make the money without having to be some kind of big corporation. I do have my own network, it's on my personal accounts which I will share with those I'm mentoring, but I'd prefer not to post publicly.

No worries, I study cyber security full time so I'm pretty much always at my PC and will be able to put the time into it. If it takes a tonne of research I'm probably not the best candidate though.

Nope not at all, you're not paying out a penny for anything here :) you can potentially pay for some software/apps to do the job, but truthfully you don't need to because all the resources are out there for free and I've got links in the ebook so you can source it all easily.

No growth services with this one, it's more of a hands on approach to something that can result in daily sales to one client, and can be done with so many at the same time you can earn a whole lot!

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Any kind of celebrity, providing they use social media, and the more active they are the more it pays out for you if you enact the method. Money wise, we're talking full time income rates, as you can pick and choose how often you'd like to work depending on how active you are yourself in contacting people and providing the service. No reselling, no arbitrage, all a service that you're offering yourself that you can do with zero cost to yourself. It's my main hustle that I rely on to pay the bills and have registered a business for doing so now, and it's something I have coached friends into doing who are now also doing this full time. It's genuinely really easy and I hope people will buy it and use it to change their situations!

sssquizzy - August 19, 2022, 3:49 am

The service that is being provided to the celebrities is definitely a useful skill to have. Not a boring task that burns you out over time but something creative.

Are there some recent earning proofs?

Sure thing! This is from direct payments to my bank account for the past few days, I have some more from PayPal that I haven't transferred to my bank yet which I can post when I'm back home too. This is literally just about an hour's work each day, and today was honestly only 10 minutes in total for two quick payments from two customers. On track to do a bigger sale in a few hours, and already hit my weekly target from bank transfers alone!

Just a note, the outgoing payments were for everyday stuff like food and some home purchases, so not expenses for the method!

bruno2914 - August 27, 2022, 10:08 pm

Several questions.

Possible payout options? Only PayPal? Is bank transfer or Bitcoin payment possible and have you used either before as a currency in a transaction?

What percentage of people can you get "on the hook" and what percent go through with the transaction?

How fast can I make return on investment, is one customer enough?

How long does it take to get the first customer? Do I always have to go looking?
Does this have anything to do with creating websites?
Should I use my personal account?
Will these "friends" only be online or irl as well?

Okay, so:

1. You can request payout any way you wish, and most will be completely accommodating. I can honestly say I've been paid in every major crypto, via PayPal, bank transfer, sometimes gift cards and even literal cash sent to me and given to me.
2. I cover it in the ebook, but at the moment the average is pretty much 50% because of the approach (again, in the ebook).
3. You can easily recoup your money spent on the method with one customer/client, but it's best to do it over a few to get them on the hook for more repeated work.
4. You can get your first customer immediately after reading and starting out, honestly that easy. You will want to keep looking to get more and more work, but you can stick with just one or two depending on how active they are and how much they may need the service.
5. Nothing to do with creating websites.
6. It helps to use your personal one as it shows you're a real person, with a real world life and reputation, and it shows you're an active person also. However, you can literally start with a brand new account and have no issues. I've set up two personal friends this way and they're now doing this full time also, and I sometimes send clients their way when I'm too busy and it's never been an issue.
7. Both! I cover this in the ebook also, but it has IRL affects too and you can honestly befriend these celebs very easily over a relatively short period of time.

Does this have to do with creating posts for the customer?

Will we be manipulating or creating videos, images or other types of media for the customer?

Not creating posts, no. And it's a media related gig that requires no prior knowledge or any investment or purchase of specialist software, as you can do absolutely everything as a beginner and using free tools that I explain and link to in the ebook.

Not at all, you can just purchase the main $100 method if you wish, that's no problem :)

It's not to do with creating websites at all, but I believe they meant to say that because they're more geared toward coding/websites they would choose to continue with that, but, ironically enough, that first customer has just upgraded to the full package with mentoring and the bonus methods, so they're about to do this full time!

I can't say what it's offering without leaking the method in a way, but it's a needed service that they might not even realise they need, but once demonstrated to them they almost always go for it and it leads to continued good business.

I can politely ask them if they wouldn't mind posting an update once they have properly started with the method full time but I can't force anyone to post if they don't wish to. In the meantime, I'm here to answer any questions and support any customers.

Does the method contain any deceptive practices such as editing faces to make them look better? Will the edited media be "lying" in any way?

No deceptive practices, and no lying! All positive and helpful things for the client and their consumers.

Will you by any chance be accepting e-transfer as a payment method? Turning fiat into cryptocurrency without kyc is almost impossible in this day and age.

Edit: Actually nvm, unless you live in Canada.

Unfortunately I'm only accepting cryptocurrency as payment at this time, but thank you for your interest all the same.

Another good day with this method!

Koyote - October 2, 2022, 8:20 am

Going to drop this by 25% on each level for the next few days to encourage sales and hopefully get some more reviews going.

This method is legitimate, legal, safe and reliable! I really hope others will give it a try and use it to change their circumstances!

Does this mean that the vouch copies are also discounted by 25%?

Meaning it would be $38.50 for the vouch copy? Or?

I meant it for the main non vouch copies to be honest, but should have clarified so I'm happy to do it at the $38.50 for you, and moving forward the discount will only apply for non vouch copies.

Koyote - November 23, 2022, 2:39 am

25% discount is still on, no more vouch copies are available.

Can this be outsourced/scaled?

That said, possible to do a combo of this an your other methods (the plant one, webcam one and fiverr one) in one contract? Do I just start a contract to get the 25% discount?

Yes to both! I have done this myself to a good level of success.

We can do a bundle for those methods no problem, the discount applies to just this particular thread though. If you start the contract, apply the 25% discount to this particular method and add info for the others you want, and I'll get it all ready for you :)

How long does it take to see results? And yes I know theoretically "you could get your first customer within 5 minutes!" But realistically... what are we looking at here?

Realistically, and I'm going off of previous customer experience and friends I put through the method, you can get your first order within the hour of buying and setting up as long as you follow the method well. I say 5 minutes due to one friend getting an order immediately after starting, so I know it's very possible!

Hoping for some more users to drop reviews soon! I do keep encouraging people to post back with updates and success stories, but for now I can only share my own until they do.

Working on a client now, hoping to net around $500 with the method for a day's work (implied to the client to be around 2-3 days work to get the extra $$)

Been working on some other projects while doing this very passively in the background, and the past couple of days have paid off big time!

Still offering some discounts on this method, so hit me up if you're interested.

Is this beginner friendly? And how exactly would mentoring work if I were to get the highest tier? Would I be able to say, pay for more mentoring after a month if needed, and would I feel the need to do so? How long does it take to do each method as well?

Koyote - March 25, 2026, 3:50 am

It's definitely beginner friendly, and not to sound too salesy but it's genuinely getting easier to do as time goes on! And yes that's no problem, I can help mentor for the first stage, and then if you still need me I can help for the time after and we can agree a price on the time needed etc, but I really don't think you'll need to after the first month, as it's relatively straightforward and can be quite easy to follow. Each method is a quick process, the only time taken really is the setup and getting familiar, but you can be ready to go within an hour of buying and reading in my opinion!

holsgarde - March 25, 2026, 3:45 pm

Can you PM me with your discord? I'm interested in the method.

If you could PM me, I'm interested in buying.
