Now that is what I am talking about! That looks like one fine pie. Drools profusely

Local pizza is almost always better than the big franchises in my experience.

I would much rather pay more at a local joint then go to a franchise.

this picture made me hungry again, i'm gonna order more food... yum.

I'm definitely on the same page. We have a local joint in town. It's the best pizza in the area compared to any large chain companies.

It depends for me personally. The couple local places by me are either just ok, or are a bit overpriced for what you end up getting.

Expherience - April 25, 2022, 8:30 am

I think local places can have better quality pizza. I usually find myself getting Papa Johns now because I get a 50% discount. If it wasn't for that, I probably would just stick to local mom & pops.

I can't even lie, that pizza looks immaculate. And I agree, local pizza is usually 10/10 times better than chain pizza.

dunya - April 25, 2022, 4:19 pm

I def prefer local pizza over chains BUT I do like Papa Johns tho haha.

I'm from NY so we are known for the pizza

Zexo - April 25, 2022, 4:29 pm

Ya for me local pizza is ehh. Its usually better in some places but it also costs way fucking more.

Prawnster - April 25, 2022, 4:33 pm

Looks beautiful, wish I had good local pizza places near me tbh, most of the ones near me are just dodgy kebab places which will give you food poisoning if you order anything hahaha.
