Thread: Reviving Old Clash of Clans Clan!

zFacetious - April 24, 2022, 7:38 pm

Quit playing for awhile, and started back up. Currently doing 5 man wars with only my account but it is becoming to much to keep up with!

Looking to grow this clan, and get in to CWL again!

I have 8 of my own accounts in mine, i only need two people who aren't 'aids' to do CWL, or is it 15 people now Agreed. Miss when I first got into this game, so fun. I skipped the whole clash royale phase. Only ever liked this mobile game.

All of my buddies are playing Clash royale! I just can't get into it though but I understand what they find catchy about it!

I mean, it is clash, so you're bound to find retards G.

If I get back into playing it, I'll come join.

I've been playing COC again. It's still fun imo but every clan I get in brings way too much pressure. There are times where I don't have time to play so it's hard to keep up.

It's relieving to hear some competition is alive in the game honestly.
