Thread: Can life get easier?

Can life really get easier if you work harder towards your goals? I'm really struggling here.

Life is always a challenge. I dont think it was "designed to be easy" especially in these very competitive days we live in. I will say, stick at what ever it is you are wanting to achieve and things will happen.

In my personal experience, life has got a lot easier as I've got older.

I always thought life would get easier once I get closer to my goals, or even achieve them. But the truth is, it just got harder. New challenges come, I set up new goals and go fight for it and yeah. But it's okay, I chose a different path so for life to be more difficult to me is kinda expected.

Life has its ups and downs bro, the way I've always got myself through the downs is by telling myself there's always some other poor fucker out there who's 10x worse off than me and he's still chugging on through life so what's my excuse.

Just keep going, you'll soon find a reason to get up in the morning. Wether it be a hobby, person or a goal to reach.

And when all else fails, seek help. Seriously.

Seems rather harsh when you put it like that but I've seen it time and time again where people try to deal with mental health issues alone and then exclude all other outside help so has to be said.

Find what makes you happy and let that kill you as they say.

lynakouba - April 30, 2022, 5:48 pm

it's life, not paradise...

Put in the effort and apply yourself, you may not reach the goal you intended, but you'll almost always end up in a better position than you were before.

Thanks bro, my philosophy is never to beat around the bush. It infuriates me intensely when people pussy foot around difficult subjects in life.

One day you will be a diamond.

SkullTraill - May 1, 2022, 5:32 am

Your life is already easier than every other point in human history.

And yes, it will get easier.

Blockonome - May 1, 2022, 6:32 am

Yes, it can get so much easier, when you start taking steps in the right direction. That is a fact and full on promise.

65DUD - June 1, 2022, 10:30 pm

Well i think depends on your life choices. But if you do it right it will probably be easier later on.

ayzi - June 2, 2022, 1:16 pm life will be life, it always has its ups and downs!

Nullusia - June 3, 2022, 7:56 am

It does. Hard work always pays off in the end, you just gotta keep going.

vegetajgd - June 10, 2022, 1:05 am

Well you can say alot of things in relation to this, But what i have understood over the time is, It completely depends on You.

You have to not get worried by peoples words or actions. You have to understand if you do not get affected nobody can have an effect on you.

Now this does not mean you do not listen. But it means keeping the BS out and just being happy. Ofcourse some meditation YOGA (YOG) will really help along the way.

But its more like you cannot change the other person, but you definitely can change yourself to not let those things bother you.
