Thread: Drip - \$30 Membership Buy-In

Lrrr - May 1, 2022, 11:34 am

Digital Nomads

$30 Lifetime Buy-in

Drip opens it's doors today to any & all members of HF who own (or are interested in owning) a registered business entity.

This group is exclusive to members who have interest in LLC, S-Corp, C-Corp, and other business entity structures and will not be of interest to people who aren't looking for specific business related information.

- Weekly meetings with the rest of group
- Standard roadmap -> setting up business
- Growth plans/charts
- Starter conversations
- Starter contracts
- Tax Basics

Membership in Drip is $30 fee.

To be fair this was always the plan.

Lrrr pushed out this information early in Drip's creation that after the first month open recruitment will end and it will turn into a buy-in.

He wanted to test the waters of not only activity within the group, but also see who is actually there to learn, participate, and develop as an entrepreneur.

Drip is an extremely active group, and I recommend it to anyone seriously trying to pursue a business, or get further ideas on their financial structure.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

If you read the recruitment thread, you'd have also noted that open recruitment only lasted until the end of April.

Seems pretty weak in my opinion.

Not gonna pay more than they're worth. I don't have to own a group, just like current owners don't have to sell.

SIM-2501407 - May 7, 2022, 11:13 am

Really glad my stupid post that had no meaning on this thread has come to this. Amazing.

Hey, good point. I sent you a convo, let's talk there?

Sad to have been removed abruptly from the group. Best of luck though with the group. New leadership tends to yield large, quick changes
