Requirements met, taking an entry. Thanks for hosting.

Thoth - May 5, 2022, 5:19 am

First off, I want to wish everyone good luck! Instead of just saying "This is my entry post.", I feel that a prize amount that large deserves a little bit more in-depth of a response. As a new business owner (Grand opening of my 3-4 man teamed Game Studio is this following Monday.) with little experience in cryptocurrency (I know, don't laugh.. I just never took the time for some reason), winning $100 btc would be an absolute blessing right now. If, by the grace of the Universe, I were to win, I would then be able to be shown the process of sending/receiving BTC (Although I do know how to create a wallet and send btc, just not very well.) And would give me the opportunity to ask a question or two, if I were to become confused or had trouble with any portion of the receiving BTC process. Lastly, $100 btc would allow me to purchase/rent some software/hardware (Such as servers, or a license to software such as 3dsmax, Maya, Etc.) Yet again, I wish you all the best of luck and hope that whoever wins puts the prize btc towards something special!
