I'm not a financial advisor and not a professional in the marketing.

I been looking around for something to invest on and I found out about Quant - QNT.

Yesterday they announced they will be releasing a new website.

Quote:Counting down to the new Quant website.

Our new site will explore how the future of finance will be built on blockchain. Leave us your email address to be sure you're one of the first to know when it's live.

Posted this before on a old thread about Quant:

Quant is an incredibly strong project with close to no marketing. We don't see QNT bringing in new customers/users, we don't hear about what's being built on QNT, but this is by design. QNT focuses on partnerships with large institutions, enterprises, and governments. QNT see regulation as a certainty, and their safety first approach is designed to ensure that they stay in the good graces of regulators when that giant pile of shit inevitably hits the fan. They're building something impressive, and they're taking their time to ensure that nobody can take it away from them when it's ready.

Keep in mind this is a coin that will cater to banks, governments, enterprises, not your average individual. One of their first milestones was to achieve interoperability with Ripple. While Overledger is impressive, I'm afraid we won't see many use cases that we get to directly interact with.
