Sadly, the majority of those UBs won't even be usable because of the file size limit restriction.

There is indeed a high standard for UBs, I can only think of 3 users that can achieve that same quality.

It's far from a clone. I've acc never seen that before lol & many ub's have symmetrical designs

Doesn't look like a clone to me, a lot of userbars have very similar designs but they still somehow end up unique

Just didn't have enough time to animate it.

I like where the idea was going and the quality it aimed for, but it came out a bit grainy/pixelated. The centerpiece definitely does not fit in (it's also Coined now not Drip). Throw in a few more money relating things like diamonds and you have a solid UB.
