Thread: Serious question: do you think there are robots designed to destroy world and extinct

Fortune-teller - May 11, 2022, 10:29 pm

Do you believe that aliens have created anything advanced that lives forever and travels through the universe destroying worlds as it goes?

Serious answer: no. Why would they? What would they benefit?

How do you know there aren't really smart/advanced/evolved/powerful aliens that see things different to us and want all life to end?

I'm just saying it's very possible the universe is very big!

I don't. If I did, I'd say yes, wouldn't I? You asked for opinions, so I gave mine. There might be aliens that want to put Barry White records on a loop for eternity and make sweet love to every planet in the universe for all I know, but I doubt it.
