Will have a higher chance of getting accepted into groups if your applications aren't lazy ass one-liners.

I only see one application and there is not much more he could tell then what he did from what i see?

At 1. He states that crypto doesn't mean much to him, which then quickly ends what crypto means to him.

2. he left empty because he has none

3. he answered properly

4. he properly answered as well he stated the skills he has, not much too it as not many people have 2 lines of skills.

and 5 he left empty because he has none.

Or was that comment referring as advice for future applications?

The comment was made in general since many people write really bad or lazy applications and think they're going to get added.

Seeing a good opportunity, Ill take my shot...

Hello Ladies and gents, my name is Save.

I've been a long time lurker on HF and at times an active one. I'm studying for a CCNA as of late which re-sparked my interest in the forums this year.

Throughout the years I have purchased a fair amount of services and products from the marketplace which actually grew my interest in BTC and digital currency.

Lets answer some questions, I'll try to keep them short and sweet.

1. What does crypto mean to you?

Crypto to me is both freedom to do what you wish with your money and a opportunity to make money. But I really believe blockchains will be how we vote someday and that its going to change society. Crypto has already been a blessing for third world countries, allowing people the ability to bank or send money overseas without insane fees. IMO Crypto is beyond just currency.

2. Notable Site Contributions if any

Working on that as we speak, getting to know people and becoming a part of the community is my goal.

3. Why do you want to join Marketers and what will you contribute

I look forwards to having a group I can work with on projects, I enjoy joint efforts. If you asked for help, I'd try my best.

4. What skills do you have, do you have any unique skills

I am tech savvy, computer literate, and studying to get a degree in computer networking atm.

My goal this year is to learn Python or Java so I can do the things I want to. I want to be able to make my own programs on computers.

5. Marketplace Threads, if any

This is a very awesome group I been checking them out for a while, I wish you the best of luck with finding a good candidate for the group!

Would love to be a part of it, but I don't feel like I really contribute much :)

Bluntmeh - May 23, 2022, 5:41 pm

Bluntmeh's Application for the Marketers Group

1. Crypto to me means the ability to invest into a digital currency that has the possibility of gaining profits over time due to other people discovering and using the crypto services like BTC, LTC, ETH. I believe BTC is the next best way to make and receive payments as the rise in crypto currency and people using it globally is only increasing value every single year.

2. A few notable site contributions that I have made would simply be back in the day around 2012-2015 I ran a innuendo service to help those who are struggling in their relationships. I know this isn't a money contribution; however, I consider it a contribution as I did this service for free for any member on Hack Forums that was going through a hard time. Besides that I have contributed in the sake of buying a few members Uber as well as myself Uber.

3. I would like to join Marketers because I was in the group years ago near the time when it was first started and you can buy in a spot for $50.00. At the time I couldn't see why I would spend such money for a group, but I ended up not only getting accepted with no initiation fee required, but I was able to learn a lot from the group and meet people that would end up being close friends through out the years. Which I was very thankful being a 14-16 year old kid at that time. (I'm now 24.) I would now like to join the group to share my knowledge with sales, online marketing, ecommerce and much more as a sign of respect and will to provide information to a group that changed my life forever.

4. A few skills that I do have would be basic coding; however, I have a lot more skills in the sales field. For years I worked with online business advertising social media accounts and then I worked as a Debt Collection Agent. As a Debt Collector I learned how to work with money, provide a "deal" and ultimately make a profit off of people who claim/have no money to even offer. With this skill and asset it has enabled me to gain many top sales position jobs all around my local area as well as remote work.

5. I've had many marketplace threads in the past; however, currently I have none up but this may change with me being much more active now. I am looking to start a business back up which I wont speak about until everything is in order and get it out on the market.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
