Thread: Your thoughts on the idea of making money from ewhoring?

What are your thoughts/opinion about the people who are making real money with gigs like ewhoring and onlyfans, Ewhoring is quite profitable if done in the right manner and can make some good money if you're dedicated!

Very frowned upon. Hard to explain in a relationship should things ever come back to face you and just the general idea of playing with individuals on that scale bothers me the most. But this is coming from a guy that likes corpos...

I have been looking at this niche for a long time and come to similar conclusions. However, it does not always come with a guaranteed profit. In my country it is not as profitable as in other parts of the world. Probably because people are highly sensitive to this type of scam.

There are better and more profitable ways to make money without seeing photos of massive strange shafts all day and squeezing money out of old men like a parasite.

If you're going to go blackhat, go all the way or don't bother.
Don't leave us in suspense what are these better ways you speak of?

If you could only help us in making money from those "methods" !

I posted it just above you.

Here are some basic links to knowledge used by some modern threat actors. You should never follow the instruction outlined verbatim, but mutate it into a new twist of method:

Use creativity and acquire some skill, know your history and dive in. There is little separating you from those who make 300-400k payouts. Hard work, dedication and intricate planning. I don't think people have enough talent to do those stuff and would risk their freedom for extremely Blackhat stuff like that! Ewhoring never got anyone arrested to this date!

You can make some good money with eWhoring if you do it right. By right I mean get an autopilot method going where you barely have to interact with any of the guys and then you don't also have to see dick pics all day long.

However, there are so many other things you could do to make better money than just basic eWhoring.

I made like $5000 doing it a few months. It started to weigh on me since there were actually genuine people that only wanted to pay you for your time.

When it came to the creeps I didn't give a fuck though.

I'm on the same page as you, but anyone exchanging money for a service should know they will only ever be a customer.

No matter how much "they really like you"...

Ewhoring is just like any other job. You do it to make money. Ask anyone that cleans toilets if they like it. I don't think they'll tell you "yes".

The popularity of Onlyfans has only desensitized the general public to any form of sex work. And if you want to talk about scamming, some of the women (especially celebrities and "influencers") are stealing money using Onlyfans. At least most ewhores are actually selling nude content.

I would simply say: Pick the right targets.

I did it for a bit 3 years ago. Didn't spend that much time learning just learned the basics and started. Didn't earn that much at all and it was kinda annoying but if you put in the time to gain experience and learn it can be profitable. Heavily saturated tho. I wouldn't say it bothers me to do it like it's cringy but i didn't mind it.
