I purchased this on 2022-04-11, original post says 2+ weeks for delivery

I kept asking for updates every week, only some went answered, and it was the usualy "yes its taking longer", and just kept trying to sell me other things too

I asked for a refund on 2022-05-22, and he ignored that private message. I asked again for a refund on 2022-05-24 and he ignored me again. It's likely that he is exit scamming

Hi mate, I'm sorry that you felt the need to open a dispute and I do apologize for the delay - this is actually the first time that I'm providing this service for other people, and I was completely straightforward with you that there are requirements to make it happen which will delay the delivery. The ETA of 2 weeks+ is in case of having the right requirements ready and we can proceed with the procedure ASAP.

In any case, I tried to keep you updated all along the way but it's been taking a bit longer for the freelancers I hired to deliver the work. This is the reason why I decided to offer you full access to the product in my signature, which actually costs double the amount that you paid me, so that you would be able to complete the procedure yourself quicker and easier with your real information - because utilizing a protonmail account with fake info severely decreases the chances of making this happen. However at this stage I've invested both time and money to complete the order so it's not possible to receive a refund at this time. I'm working to expedite the delivery process and proceed with completing your order ASAP - and then I will close that sales thread cause honestly it's not worth the time and effort lol.

In any case, I'm completely open to discussing further and reaching an agreeable conclusion that works for both sides. I'm not a scammer and never have been in the 14 years I've been here. Let's take this discussion privately but please keep in mind that my IRL engagements keep me busy so I don't login on HF often, however I try to do my best to provide support for customers & community members.

Please refund my money and mark the contract as resolved

RocketChroma - June 1, 2022, 4:44 am

Bumpin gthis. Either you give me what I paid for, or refund me my money.

If you do neither then yes, you have scammed me.

RocketChroma - June 26, 2022, 6:17 am

Still haven't heard anything from him regarding this, it's been over a month since I asked for a refund

Any updates? You still haven't provided me the service I paid for, or given me a refund

RocketChroma - January 8, 2023, 2:36 am

Still no reply from OP. He has exit scammed

RocketChroma - March 4, 2023, 1:13 am

Instead of him refunding me, he is trying to scam me even further in private messages, telling me I can get a "discount"

?βorder?ineExtr\(A\) sent me a long convo message saying that he isn't a scammer and if I say he is again he will report me for harassment. You aren't a scammer ?βorder?ineExtr\(A\) then resolve your DD?

OP asked for a refund in May of 2022 multiple times and claims you ignored him. You have specifically stated in this thread "However at this stage I've invested both time and money to complete the order so it's not possible to receive a refund at this time. " So are you going to refund the guy who give him the product that he purchased? Its been almost ten months since this dispute was filed against you and you think I'm going to sympathize with you because you're a 2009 member and threatening the report me?

Lmao you're so pissed off it's hilarious. This dispute is between me and OP, you're entitled to your opinion though we can all tell that you're being a salty  (as my rep states :D), however ultimately your opinions are completely irrelevant and I personally couldn't give a rats ass about you or whatever the fuck you're supposed to represent - you sad excuse of a joke that doesn't deserve to carry that username. Now very politely I'll ask you to stop quoting my posts cause I don't want to see your sorry avatar on my notifications. Ggwp

Hope you get closed for scamming.
