Thread: Suspension ends in account close?

NSA2 - June 8, 2022, 4:10 am

My account was suspended for 30 days for suggesting a thread and my accounts been closed now...I don't understand.

Can a staff member please help...doesn't make sense.

My Account:

Thread I was suspended for:

Omni's quote:

I'm in a generous mood. He only gets a month ban for this nonsense instead of a closed account. Guess he misses out on the giveaway. :)

xHeaven - June 8, 2022, 5:29 am

Reason Closed: Multiple Accounts

Pretty straightforward imo.

NSA2 - June 8, 2022, 6:47 am

But I don't have multiple account..this is literally the only one I've ever had since 2011 prior to making this one.

Why would I make another account when I knew I was getting unbanned in less than a few days at the time.

Sky - June 8, 2022, 7:41 am

Idk but I can tell you that if you make a new account instead of just using Contact Us it could hurt your chances of an appeal.

Even if you do make a multi from not being able to access your account you're supposed to make it a uid_temp until it's resolved. Which given that you were banned by Omni himself and then closed, I'd say he had no interest in resolving it.

Unrelated though, checked your old account, wild to me that you'd open a dispute on someone just for filing a dispute against you. And you waited 6 months to do it. lol

Well I couldn't do Contact Us because I was banned. I didn't know you could make a _temp account.

Explain to me how you couldn't use the Contact Us form, when I myself was able to use it when I was closed?

Also:

2. We do not allow multiple accounts except a UID_TEMP account as explained in our "Stolen and Lost HF Accounts" help doc.

Not to be a dick, but how have you not read the Help Docs after 11 years?

This was the error I received back when I tried, I still have a screenshot of it.

Well, I can't post pics or links.

It's because you didn't bother logging out before trying to use the Contact Us form. I just logged out and clicked it to check, worked perfectly fine.

You're logged in to an account that has lost all privileges. Unable to do anything. Would those restrictions apply to an unregistered guest?

My advice, try sending an e-mail, try getting this thread closed, and pray that Omni is feeling merciful with your 11 year old account. Because spoiler, he certainly had no problems closing my 2011 account for good.

If he lets you come back, it might even be under the condition that you have to start over with a new account. Regardless, be a good banana if he brings you back. And READ THE DAMN Help Docs! lol

I can't understand why would someone have a secondary account with 250 posts and positive b-ratings. Why wouldn't you do that on your main account? Doesn't make any sense.

Because on their main account they got banned/suspended so they couldn't use HF fully. So they used one of their secondary accounts to basically ban evade. We tend to notice that sort of thing. The fact he's a liar and tried to claim he didn't use a 2nd account is the real offense though imho. That shows bad character and low standard of ethics.

NSA2 - June 9, 2022, 3:21 pm

I've tried emailing you Omni. Could you check the IP's on that account so see if I've ever logged in.

I've never had another account.

You are calling me a liar but I know for a fact I've never had one. So..

If I knew that I was lying about something you could prove beyond a reasonable doubt I don't think I'd sit here trying to defend myself.

Corr this the sorta shit we love to see; someone gets exposed and then they like "nah nah nah that's defo not me!!" hahaha.

TBH this looks like bad design. Why would getting banned/restricted or whatever you want to call the mechanic requier user to log out to be able to appeal.

Don't get me wrong, OP is still wrong for not following the rules but current rules are really unintuitive.

It's all bad design.

Man, if I couldn't use the contact us button because I didn't log out, how could I have logged into another account?

Hmm.?

Didn't say that that was the case.

Just said that being logged out for sure works. Can't speak for being logged in while banned.

NSA2 - June 9, 2022, 5:36 pm

Maybe the admin of the site could check the login logs for the other account and compare IP's/Provider/Geolocation.

Probably won't matter, I must be lying. I bet even if Omni was wrong (god forbird) he'd never admit it. I give up, no point arguing with God.

Imagine saying someone has bad ethics and doesnt bother to fully investigate the issue.

I know in my heart im telling the truth.
