Well, I will start.

Mine is "Arya Stark" without a doubt. Although in the end she did lose that edge in the final fights in the sense not enough oomph to it all but man I loved her character.

I have been so much excited in her entire journey from where she is interested in a lot of stuff which the guys used to do during that time to actually doing it and then coming back for REVENGE.... Ohh man those memories of scenes bring back the feelings i went through while watching hahaha.....

So whats yours :)

I edited the post as i accidently wrote the name of tge wrong sister

Seems like it's of no question. Arya Stark is too badass.
