Thread: Share of WoW Boosting Site \(250k annually \)

Troy - June 8, 2022, 4:17 pm roughly about 250k USD in sales / year.

after paying boosters i get about 70-80% of revenue as i work on it also.

<https://arenafans.net/>

Would be looking to sell percentages upto 49%. as i would still work on managing and working for the website)

All traffic has been driven ingame advertising & word of mouth. So pref somebody with an idea of marketing on google , youtube , other forums etc

Also would be willing to expand into other games if a buyer has the knowledge and a list of boosters

This looks super dope, don't know anyone here that will invest that much money into the project though to be realistic.

Why are you selling 50% of the website if you make 250k/year?

I'm looking to invest into new avenues so if you can give some insight we can discuss everything.

I don't think there's anyone here who will invest that much either. Why don't you think about selling smaller percentages to more people? Say 1% or 5% at a time.

Do you have any vouches? You seem very trustworthy but vouches are important to me

I was a professional booster for League and can expand with you, but I'm not entirely interested in putting in money with you.

I know my market though.
Would show them privately via PM's -

If you're netting $250,000 USD/year (as I assume this implies), and it seems relatively comfortable (all from home). Why sell even 1%? This is money that will set you up for life in a short amount of time.

getting quite burnt out , i want some help running it so i can settle down a little.

tried having others running it their heart was not dedicated .

so i think the best option is to get somebody else involved with a share of the company. also i have no time to do anything outside of the game which is draining my mental.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.
