Hello, for anyone who's looking for an easy way to make a delicious Ramen, this is one of the easiest ways. I do not take credit for the recipe

Ingredients:

500ml chicken stock
1/8 cup of sriracha sauce
5 1/2 oz of good egg noodles
1 chicken breast, marinated handful of beansprouts
1/4 red onion, finely sliced
1 scallion, chopped
1 fresh red chili, sliced to marinate chicken: 2 tbsp soy sauce & 1 tsp of freshly grated ginger to garnish: a few sprigs of cilantro, 1/4 lime

Method:

marinate chicken breast for 1 hour before placing in a hot oven until cooked through cook egg noodles in pan of boiling water (follow packet instructions) once noodles are cooked, drain and place into ramen bowl add sriracha sauce and chicken stock, then stir to separate noodles slice cooked chicken at 45°, placing gently on top of the noodles add freshly chopped ingredients to the dish and garnish with lime + sprigs of cilantro

Interesting recipe. However, I myself am very busy preparing such dishes.
But maybe someday I will finally try to do it?
