The ebook involves creating a website.

OP includes a step by step instructions on how to perform the method.

He gives good tutorials to guide you in every step of the way.

He also provide the proper tools to use to perform this method.

In a bird's eye view, I cannot see why this method will not work because the niche involve is a hot evergreen niche.

There's a manual work involve in performing this method but it is definitely worth it.

This is not a get rich quick scheme.

You need to put in the initial work at first.

I would rate this ebook as 8.5 out of 10.

(Jun 16, 2022 01:23 PM)Riddler Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) so i grabbed a copy of this guide, since i am a former customer and was very happy with my last purchase.

So after reading this guide, i am happy aswell, that i hopped on this.

as mentioned from the seller, this is not a "make some 500$ in a few hours method" with no work required. this method is around quite some time (i already did something similiar some time ago) but along with his guide & ressources it helps you to see results fast. i wish i knew these workarounds back then, because they save alot of manual work.

i cant provide any earnings yet, still setting this up.

so if you have the mindset, some spare time and the little investment aside, you surley will see some profits. the more you work & the more you earn. this also will not get saturated as mentioned above, has been here for a long time. specially the niche he provides, is longlasting.

you could also experimenting a bit and test new ones, sky is the limit.

Leadpal is a very nice guy and he has always time for questions and is transparent from the beginning. no hidden hickups & whatever.

thanks for this opportunity and i will edit with profits in the next days.

generous enough to also give me one of his other previous courses when he found out I'm an aspiring web dev. The method is clearly put out and I for one wouldn't have thought about it since I'm not that familiar with this area of internet marketing let's say. I would rate it 9/10 since the only thing that is left for you to do is to find your specific niche, which would be much more profitable than just following his example from the tutorial, but I think his example would also work. I will post proof of earnings as soon as I start to work on it next week and hopefully get the profits in as quick as possible.

Thanks man!

PS: he's also a really trustworthy and chill guy and I'm looking forward to do business with him in the future.

The method itself, is not original. I have stumbled across very similar methods before, and it's probably something you could think of with enough time and understanding of how the internet works. What I will say, is the step by step information provided along with the numerous pictures and examples and resources included in this guide, do make it worth it. You can make decent income off of this, and the more hours you have available to concentrate on this method the more you will make. It does require some average computer skills but nothing that isn't covered in the guide. I don't see why/how this method wouldn't work anywhere worldwide. If you can put in 2-3 hours daily or once every 2/3 days, yeah you'll see a return on your purchase price of this method relatively easily.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

Review:

I haven't seen something similar to this method. There is step by step instructions with pictures to guide you. It includes the programs and websites needed. The instructions are pretty simple, nothing difficult. Your earnings depend on how much time you put into it. It's kind of like repeating the same process, and the more you repeat it the more revenue you get. It doesn't involve talking to people, flipping items, or high luck. You will be on your computer the whole time while following it.

Just by reading it, money is pretty much guaranteed if you spend at least an hour a day. It comes with a recommended niche, but you could pick your own and potentially make more profit.

Conclusion: This is a high quality method that actually works, if you spend all day on it you could be seeing big money coming in. It's also pretty easy, especially once you get the hang of it.
