66leonidas - June 18, 2022, 1:33 pm

joker you behave very unprofessionally and are not friendly. deep deserves friendliness, you have to understand that first. you won't find a single customer with this behavior.

kindly regards

I agree with this. OP sounds a bit like an arrogant teenager that doesn't know how to handle himself professionally with others.

Good luck with sales, OP.

prove to honorable house that your stuff is working by giving out to well known members (1 to3) but you are here busy talking shit and you expect someone to pay you.. Think kid you can sell stuff, you're still selling your silent word exploit you need to understand though, from our perspective you are a brand new member and nobody knows who you are, you could be looking to beam one person for 10k then dip outta here forever thats why were asking you to provide proof of the exploit, if you can actually do that, people on here will actually pay you good money as its very, very demanded.

jason123 - June 24, 2022, 1:18 am

Give proof to reputable persons up there and also reduce your price
