Never watched it but I also don't tend to watch a ton of older anime's anymore. Might give it a shot if I ever get super bored.

How are you liking it so far?

I watched Yu Yu a bit when I was a kid as well but never fully sat down to watch it all in order.

It's an amazing anime, An underrated one at that but hey each to their own i loved gundam, cowboy bebop, ghost in a shell, Samuari Champloo, Eurka 7, naruto and shippiden not so much brootuoooo!

The list goes on the current anime i have finished well a few of them where,

World Trigger, Tayna the devil, a quite a few others. Decent shows i think.

Currently watching the show Kingdom but i have always loved Chinese history among history in general but the last few episodes have been well cliff hangers.

Anyways off to finish reading the book i bought. :)

Yu Yu Hakusho is probably the best older anime I've watched, great comedy. I would recommend it to anyone considering it- let me know how you enjoy it OP.

One of my top 10 anime watched. If you want to watch one of the best shounen, that's your anime.

Watched it double digit times english dubbed.
