You will get zero sales without providing someone a vouch copy you can post "proof" all day but screen shots could easily be faked not saying that's the case but providing just 1 vouch copy to someone so they can confirm you are legit would help you but GLWS!

I've done the method for ages I'm happy to give a few vouch copy's to users of my choice no problem I'd even use mm

Does this method have anything to do with claiming there was something wrong with your order?
