Experienced ewhore here will take a vouch copy and gladly report earnings if that's real traffic.

I would recommend everyone to deal with caution with this following user. It's look like a scam.

If you check OP's profile, he's commenting every threads into Buyers Bay. He can magically provide Discord design, itunes card, coding scripts, and more. Account is brand new and definitely look like for a quick scam.

That being said, you are free to deal with him but you can also hire a middleman for more safety. My two cents.

Don't worry about people trash talking this thread.
Once you get done some deal, people can vouch for you.

Anyone can get in touch with me after this deal is done for verification of OP. (deal in progress, I am the middleman)

EDIT: Did not deliver

OP didnt delivered yet a single account, so I'm still waiting. I'll update you if he deliver, but I have serious doubts about that.

UPDATE: OP don't answer for 2 days now, stay away from this clown.

I fucking knew it since the start he was a scammer. It's so obvious lol. Dude was replying on every single thread in Buyers Bay. And he keeps trying.

Why are you taking orders if you haven't delivered to the people above?

Because the deal went through MM and I was sick. So MM refunded money to buyer.
