MissEyeLure - July 9, 2022, 9:33 am

I'm selling a method to ban any discord account and related servers they own, this method is unpatched and been working for me well over a year, I will use MM if needed, paypal or crypto idm.

So is it worth the 100 pounds? I'm a bit curious.

It's definitely worth the 100pounds

Autophobia - July 10, 2022, 9:54 am

Spoke to the OP he explained the method to me and i have seen methods like this work in the past this one is a lot easier then other ones i know of. Takes a very small amount of work to get it going but i don't see any reason why it will not work. I will try it out later and give a update.

You can say that, but I'm looking for the other persons opinion. The sellers will always be "proud of their product"

User has given me the method as a vouch, and I'll say it is very unique and sneaky to get who you want banned!

I can definitely see it working. It is very straight forward and to the point. Thanks again for the opportunity!

I thought the same too but once in the call he explained the method and it's extremely simple to jot it down yourself. Granted I 1000% agree it should already be in a written doc ready to go. He assured to me it was but he already gave it to x amount of people got vouch copy and was just hooking me up by telling me it verbally. Imo what I gathered from the call is dude just likes to talk. There's nothing sneaky.

For customers I would assume he would give them a written doc

ReviveTech - July 14, 2022, 11:00 am

I don't see any actual "vouches"

I see a bunch of "This could work" or "This will work if you follow steps"

But no guaranteed it worked for them.

Weird, you keep also self vouching for yourself per response.

DWC in my opinion.

None of them have said "It works, I've done it"

Difference between vouching, and suggesting that it could work.

Seems like might not be a instant process or a decent length one since none of them seemed to fond of trying it or updating saying it worked.

I'm not trying to ruin your sale, but I am keeping it blunt and honest.

I was interested in this, just was disappointed by the so called "vouches" you are referring to.

Coming back as one of the people who vouched saying it could work

So I have tested out this method and I have yet to have any success with it. Granted as I said before I know other methods that are similar to this method in theory and they can work but this method has not given me any success.

It does take time to execute and write off working or non working I've personally given it nearly a week and nothing has happened to my test accounts doing exactly as OP said to do.

I also happen to be a discord partner so I have access to the discord staff team at my disposal and went around the bush of the method to get help as a concerned user of discord and not someone using the method and they stated because of certain aspects that make this method easier to pull off it makes it very unlikely it'll actually get the person banned or their server removed that it'll have to be changed in order for this to possibly work. (I understand that's confusing but I can't exactly word this properly without leaking the method working or not that's not my place)

Long story short I did not manage to get this working, discord staff pretty much confirmed as explained it's not going to work but if you have a stupid enough person you can indeed tweak the method and get it to work as long as discord is on top of everything but still could take time and the amount of time it takes is 100% out of your control.

I did bring this up to OP he assures me the method is working and he's done it before many times. Op proceeded to try to sell me a different banning method for a different social media and when I requested he actually execute the method to prove it works unlike the discord method he told me it's not worth his time and that he makes more money for selling bans as a service then selling the method so all and all I'd say just deal with caution. The way I see things is if you have a working product you can stand behind you should be able to execute the method. Without proof of success you truly don't have anything.

OP is obviously extremely sketchy and full of shit, and the fake vouches on the thread are laughable.

0 evidence you can actually ban any account/server, I challenge OP, ban a server, small or large and show us the results.

Lets see you get the official RuneScape discord banned

discord/rs

Despite OP being sketchy and the real vouches being very critical of the method I think it's fairly clear that the method is not intended to ban large servers (i.e RuneScape), this is just common sense.

Something like this would not be possible. His wording of any is very lose. You need to have some sort of established trust with the victim and they need to be pretty oblivious to get any working variation of this method to work.

But like I said in my updated review the method I received from him did not work and discord staff pretty much confirmed it wouldn't result in a ban due to one key part of the method. Not saying it's impossible to get this method working I'm just saying it did not work for me as described BUT if you tweak the method and your victim is VERY oblivious and trust you then yes as long as discord support is on their A game you can get someone banned / their server deleted. But not with the way the method is as it sits. That's why I mentioned in my original post how easy it was. With the method he's selling the key factor that makes it not work is why it's so easy to do. Remove that aspect and you're just working on luck and stupidity.

Works fine? Someone you gave a vouch copy to just wrote a multi paragraph post on how it doesn't work and he's tried for a week. Doesn't sound like it's working fine.

I received a vouch copy from you and stated multiple times to you that it wasn't working and even informed you after speaking to discord trust and safety the way the method is it won't work and even after tweaking it and making it a water down version of what it was that has almost no chance of anyone falling for it you're still resorting to just luck if discord is responding fast enough to make it even worth attempting and all you responded was nah bruh it works. So how am I bashing? I received your product, tried it for a week, tweaked it myself, went out of my way to clarify some things with discord staff to see if it's even possible this could work and nothing. To this day the accounts I made for testing and their servers are still active. Bashing is not the same as being honest about a non working method. You're out here using my name constantly as a sign of being legit while selling this non working method of course I'm going to come back here and let everyone know it's not working. Can't just sit back and take peoples money and provide nothing under other peoples reputation and think they won't say anything..
