pnxkiller - July 11, 2022, 10:39 am

Hello,

i just wanted to warn everybody from the services of "Satisfied" aka @Yewssir0 on telegram + he's even using Ninja's nickname from the forum as a middleman!!!! Have a look at the picture.

Thats a 3 person group with the middleman (he was also Satisfied) This is the proof that I sent the money to the middleman (who is Satisfied himself) 300$ gone.

His other scam profile on telegram:

@unkpdr

He changed his name to: @Yessirr12

Proof that he is Satisfied from the forum!

You deserve it for being dumb + violating forum rules (dealing w/o a contract)

He didn't follow the rules but nobody deserves to be scammed

Even if he dealt with a contract, the scammer will always scam anyway

Scammers are pathetic and should get a life & a real job

Honestly to people who get scammed like you no, the forum has a system in place to minimize such situations, you don't give a F, violate the rules and come here crying? You deal with someone on telegram or discord w/o any leverage you have over him screwing you... You know what... You might ACTUALLY get scammed on the internet!!

Impersonation threads not allowed. Can't impersonate someone if you are using contracts as required.
