Thread: Small Valorant hardware cheat providers?

Armadyl - July 15, 2022, 4:20 am

Anyone have any suggestions on where to look for small trusted private communities/providers?

been looking at lime and immunity if anyone had any other suggestions

thanks

I have been part of a semi-private community for a while. The dev is really responsive and always releasing new stuff for customers (if the main cheat is not your cup of tea). If you are interested dm me. It has a pretty in-depth self-setup to get it with the full protection just so you know.

There are a bunch of members on there that rage for weeks straight that only get banned when enemies/teammates file a ticket to riot get banned.

to let u guys know, vanguard is poopoo but hardware hacks (as it comes to simple ones) are detected and will get bashed like a generic kernel cheat.

ud rather go for a small private hack with its own / not pasted / driver and u will basically last until they manually investigate on u which happens at higher ranks

So staying in a small community will keep you undetected? tbh my issue is trying to find the community

Infact, most slotted chairs for this game here you'd better off buying a HARDWARE cheat, such as a PCI-E Screamer or something of the sort and buying your own custom firmware.

Nobody is going to pay $100-$300 on slotted chairs on this forum. So quit crying about what's on this forum. Nothing but good reviews on my chairs, no bans on Val either if anyone was wondering.

Most devs claiming they're selling "slotted" are also liars. You may find a very select few on underground websites but I haven't seen many and any that I do are outrageous in price.

I know not one person who would pay for a slotted cheat. I do know people who use PCI-E Screamers though and they work very well. So If anyone has the money to dump, look into it. You're looking at about $400-600 for the device and finding a dev who can create custom firmware for you is gonna be a task.

I think you meant cheat not chair ?

I understand the slotted concept ?

Ye, I have to use the term often over other websites and Discord.

Ah, I understand now. Thanks for the clarification & I'm sure the slotted explanation will be useful to those who don't understand the concept.

Yea when I first started my venture I had a dev who did slotted.

Prices too high, nobody bought. I ditched the concept entirely. It's just out of reach for a cheat like that unless you're a BIG twitch streamer who doesn't wanna be caught and have dick loads of money to spend on one.

Just like a FN slotted cheat in FN's prime was going for BUKU Bucks since you could win good money in tournaments, if im not mistaken still are going for buku bucks. Haven't been keeping up with FN lately.

still on my dick cuz u sell pasted public garbage. quit acting like you know cheats. you're a nobody. Anybody can go to these public pasted cheats and ask for a reseller discount. You don't dev, will never dev, and know any actual good devs.

Anywho back to having you on ignore. Cya NN
