I obviously cannot disclose the actual contents of this method so some aspects may seem 'vague'. To start, this method does exactly what it says it will do although it may be a slow burn after some time. It's not scalable to $10k+/day (obviously) but if you pick up some Amazon Gift cards through exchanges or sales/have balance laying around this is a good use for them. I've heard of this methods concept in the past although OP neatly organizes everything you will need to get started alongside enough to where you can easily scale it within reason. It takes little to no setup time to achieve the desired outcome, this isn't an 'ebook' as much as it is an actual method.

Overall Rating: 9/10

-1 Point due to this not being entirely 'unique' but what is provided with the method makes the price more than justified.

(Jul 22, 2022 09:03 AM)xSyCo Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Bought the method from OP, he was really supportive and helpful.

Everything went smooth, the guy helped me with the method and also provided me an additional way alongside with the main method.

The method is easy and can be done multiple times, and if you really want, you can scale it.

The method is worth the money, and I will sure do the method in the coming weeks.

France

Great question! If you live outside of the locations stated before (USA, UK, DE, CA, Spain, France, Italy) you can get 1:1 of your AGC balance and maybe a little more. There is a Black Hat way to still double your money though.

The gift cards must be from those locations. If you live outside them you can get 1:1 the balance and maybe a little more. You can still double your money but the method would then turn Black Hat.

Yes, pricisely. You could potentially get somewhat more than double too

If I provided no support this would be saturable. But I would make sure it isn't.

Ok do I need to interact with people or is done automatically through a platform?

Any risk to my PayPal or Amazon account?

How much can you do a day? And is this sustainable for long term?

To answer your first question you don't need to go through an exchange or anything like that. This method is 100% safe you aren't doing anything illegal. This is sustainable long term and you can scale it as high as you want. If you were to ever run into an issue where you think you can't scale I can talk you through it. But I don't think that will happen.

I think the minimum is like $6. This changes. Could be lower, the highest minimum I saw was $10. You could potentially convert it within minutes. Sometimes a couple hours or days. But for the most part you get to choose. If doing mass AGC then it will just vary.

Your first question was answered in the post just before yours. There's a possibility you can get paid another method but I can only guarantee PayPal. You can request F&F. The funds are legit you will never have an issue with that.

How do you protect yourself from PayPal chargebacks?

What about saturation if a 100 people sell AGC, would it lessen the doubling due to competition?

Unfortunately I am no longer offering vouch copies. I've given one vouch copy and they have left the review. I also have three sales and they should be leaving a review soon. If you'd like you can just wait for them to review it as well and decide if you'd like to purchase.

I don't understand your logic? He would be getting $50... it's simply a 50% residual payment that is based on confidence in said product. You're absolutely correct it's $50.
