Thread: Resident Evil | Netflix Series

Gary - July 19, 2022, 10:38 am

Just attempted to watch the first episode of this Netflix series.

It was awful. I couldn't even finish the first episode due to how bad the blue screen/CGI was within the first 25 minutes.

Here's the trailer, I wouldn't recommend it though personally.

I watched the first episode the other day and the CGI was pretty shit and cheesy but it was pretty entertaining to get super drunk with my roommate and watch.

Just got mad drunk and talked shit and enjoyed the few fun parts.

I would suggest not watching it sober then. Its horrendous.

All the reviews were bashing it most people say the first 3 episodes are the best

Oh yeah even drunk we didn't make it through episode 2 and just decided to watch the new Dr. Strange movie and smoke a ton of weed instead

From the preview it looks okay I am in need of something on Netflix to watch.

I would highly encourage you pass on this series entirely.

I am going to have to agree on this one! ?

HEISENPUG - July 22, 2022, 10:49 am

I woke up last night with Netflix playing this show. I was on YouTube before I passed out. I'm traumatized I had to experience watching this show again.

Gary - July 30, 2022, 10:59 am

Alright, so I was able to finish watching the series the other day from the start with some friends. Its alright after the first episode. The main character Jade is very unlikable. Everything she does is so selfish. The ending episode was just weird asf. Low tier CGI. Wish they spent more money making it look better.

Kinda going to hope for a S2 that isn't as cringe.

I thought the same thing. A few episodes in, it gets better. Which doesn't say much because the first few were poorly written IMO. I would definitely say pass for sure.

It was a funny show for us. We mainly laughed at it, since we watched it all in one sitting lol.

I'm curious to if they will have a season 2 or if it'll be another show that gets killed off after 1 season.

It's been on my list since release, just never got around to it. Like I said I really liked the movies, so I was looking forward to getting into the show.

nah the series was alright the next seasons going to be better theres a bunch of shit they will put in it....now its a different concept for sure but its still resident evil and the graphics werent that bad the zombies werent so brutal looking though i will say that but it has potential to be good i will say however that they did cancel the series for now but i theorize theyll make another season once it gets enough popularity

I read it, but I was merely stating that Netflix had cancelled it. It was definitely left on a cliff hanger season ending. I found a couple of the scenes very cringe. Also the main character gets rag doll'd like crazy

Didn't watch it, as normally animated stuff isn't of interest. However if I time I'll check it out.
