How did you pay and when? If it's crypto, confirmation may take time.

If your transaction failed, it is normal that your account was not upgraded.

Your transaction failed. The payment wasn't sent. You probably double spent the funds. I saw that transaction a few days ago. Within 15 minutes it said failed so I assume you made another payment that spent the BTC in the wallet.

All this is your problem, a failed transaction is on your end. Simple as that.
