Thread: HQ Twitter Shoutouts for ONLYFANS! - Get CRAZY Amounts of Subscribers & Followers!

Koyote - July 21, 2022, 2:54 am

Add legitimacy to your page, your model's page or your ewhore page, and get shoutouts from trusted accounts in the scene!

I have only ever used this with real models who have messaged my account first looking for paid promotion, I've never had to reach out for sales so you can be assured that the account only shares HQ content and it converts very easily from promo tweets to active subs and frequent sales of content. I also block known timewasters and don't allow models or other accounts to comment on the promo tweets, so your content won't be hijacked by someone else looking for clicks on their page, it'll be all you. This makes my tweets and account stand out because other promo accounts will fake interactions and then allow anyone and everyone to post their links in the replies which makes your content look a little less professional, and can be associated with LQ content.

Giving two vouch copies to trusted users (Ub3r or better) for review purposes.

Payment is in crypto only.

What's the success rate of this service? I want to see some testimonials. I'm curious how many subs I can get and if it's guaranteed success.

It's hard to say exact numbers as the vast majority don't report back on their sub count as they keep them private, but I do know that generally speaking I see follower count go up by around 30% each time, and most models who place an order will come back for more promo which tells me it works for them. It does depend on the content and how HQ it is, but it's been very effective for pages I've run and or those of friends.

I will send you a PM so we can talk more. In principle, I am interested, but I still need more information.

yes, you can accept the contract without refund :P Im good with the terms that you dm-ed me.
Im sorry but im new to this, and i don't have 10 posts to send you a message back :P

If i have problems with the payment/contract, please guide and help me so we can make the 'trade'... because i just founded this forum, and i might have to learn some things :P

Hey no problem, I'll accept the contract now and will add in the terms regarding promo if you don't have a good response. And sure thing, if you have any issues I'll walk you through it.

You're welcome! Added the payment address and accepted the contract, so all the info should be on there for you.

And yeah that's fine, I was hoping you might do so :)

And regarding vouch copies that the other user asked about, as said in the opening post I'm offering two to Ub3r or above users for review purposes, but once some reviews come in I will remove that.
