- You will be doing a "task" that will get u 100-400$ (you can do multiple tasks in 1 month) + additional 20$ every month per task done
- Highly scalable, u can do 10 tasks / month and get +200$ / month on autopilot in your first month, +400$ / month in your 2nd month etc

Do you accept MM until $100 is made back?

Gracioso - July 25, 2022, 4:58 am

looks interesting..

you say semi autopilot, but income depends on the amount of work we put in. how much is work vs autopilot?

Crocketas - July 25, 2022, 7:03 am

3 Sold copies, increasing prices in 10hrs or less!

(Jul 24, 2022 10:06 PM)Sephiroth Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Do you accept MM until $100 is made back?I don't really like to do that since it totally depends on you and the work you put

you say semi autopilot, but income depends on the amount of work we put in. how much is work vs autopilot?The "semi autopilot" part is that you get additional 20$ / month per task done, so if you do 10 tasks in 1 month you will be getting a passive income of 200$ every month

how long do these tasks take? how much time/effort needed to complete a $400 task?

Crocketas - July 25, 2022, 12:09 pm

5 Sales completed

It takes a few hours, its the same for every task, you don't get tasks everyday though

Your sales counter is increasing, but your contract counter is still at 0. So you're doing deals with yourself? Offsite? Doesn't matter, 0 contracts completed here. Would recommend giving a vouch copy, despite the voucher never actually reviewing/trying it.

Deals with myself ? I have a more reputed account in another forum (I don't think I can name it here) and I'm getting buyers there, I don't need to give a vouch copy since I'm not in a rush to get sales here as I get much more traffic in the other site, and it seems like everyone here is just hungry for a vouch copy lol Absolutely, as I figured (that's why I said "with yourself"). Again, a copy sold elsewhere means nothing here. "I did business in Australia," doesn't mean much in "America." I don't want the vouch copy, was just suggesting that it may help you out if legitimate. Not a big deal regardless, GLWS.

Just saying the copies that I'm selling to justify the increase of the prices, if I sell copies in other forums and increase the prices there, I will increase them here too, thanks :)

You're getting sales from other forums and not this one, and you're counting the number of sales you completed on other forums and posting here, 1. to justify your price increase 2. to get potential customers to purchase quickly before the price increases. If you are getting many sales on other forums, and don't need sales on this forum, why post here?

Anyways, GLWS.

I'm pretty sure know what it is already since MM deal was rejected because of it depends on me putting the work, if someone is confident in his method then they wouldn't mind an MM deal.

I'm just going to clarify that it's not semi-autopilot and you won't get hired by company but instead you'll look out for small & medium businesses (Not a company) you'll offer them to sell your services and take in mind that you may get rejected and it depends on that certain business accepting your "task" or not, finally method is public and free and you may find competitors and saturation in your way and $150 is way too much, and the fact that the price will rise after every sale is insane.

Not sales trashing but making HF members aware of this before dealing, because they don't print their money but instead they work hard to get it, so yeah use it wisely.

raregod - July 25, 2022, 10:48 pm

Well a buyer on C.io just said it was a public method so thats why OP doesnt want to do MM.

diablospartan - July 25, 2022, 11:11 pm

Someone can get us some insights about this method who used it .It sounds interesting
