Thread: Regarding Illusion's latest scams. If you were scammed by him, please contact me.

SecretAchiever101 - July 25, 2022, 4:26 am

Disclaimer: This post is NOT a marketplace warning. It's pretty clear by now that Illusion, indeed exit scammed. This post, is for anyone that he may have scammed. Please read it and contact me as soon as you do so. I will provide you with his phone number, address, name, car, house and many more info that you can give to the police, making sure that he will not escape getting caught.

Who is Illusion?

Illusion, also known as Micah An, was one of our members. Originally, he reached out to me for a problem I had. He helped me with it and I awarded him a spot to our group, Succubus, as an "honorary title". He is most likely diabetic. He lives in Georgia/ US. He is overweight, and he has some hand and face tattoos, most likely obtained from prison. Therefore, he is, most likely, affiliated with illegal activities and he, in fact, does not care about his, nor his family's well being. He is the worst kind of manipulator. He manipulated his wife, convinced her to stop talking to her Dad and enclosed her to an environment that he and only he can have authority over her.

What did he do?

As soon as he joined Succubus, knowing that the group's reputation is quite high, he had a plan in mind. To exit scam. I upgraded him to L33t, then to Ub3r, because I want all of my members to be at least Ub3r. Apparently, that benefited his cause, because he could boost his b-ratings more, even faster than before. And so he did.

After a couple of days of him building up his reputation, he exit scammed, stealing over 1500$ + , including SourceCode101 and my money as well.

How did we tackle this issue?

I noticed some suspicious activity. I knew I had to act and find some sensitive information regarding him and his life in case he decides to do something stupid like this. I am not the guy who throws the first punch. But, you better believe I will finish it, once you start it.

So, I warned him that he has three days to return the stolen funds to anyone that he stole from, or else, I would be sending the information I have to the police and to anyone that he stole from, so they can proceed to complete a formal report under his name.

Soon after, he added me on discord. Not only was he not apologetic but he started threatening me, saying that he can get on a plane and come find me, to which I replied that I am more than willing to welcome him with open arms...quite literally.

Conclusion

Unfortunately, he will not be returning any of the funds that he scammed. I tried to reason with him but to no avail. The best I can do now, is share all of his sensitive information privately to all of those that fell victims to his scams, so they can complete a formal report.

Guys, for the millionth time. Let that be a lesson to you. A hard one, but still a lesson. Do not trust new members with payments that big. Use the trust scan feature. Pay in smaller segments. Never deal off-site. Use a middleman, heck, he was one of my members, you can literally dm ME to be your middleman and I would do it free of charge. YOU, have ways to NOT get scammed. You just constantly fail to use them and it's upsetting. If you don't care for your money, how do you expect other people to care? Please, for the love of god, use precautions, so you don't end up falling victims of scams like this.

i know what you are trying to do here " Helping other members " but you do brake the very first Rules of HF

Code 1. Members are not allowed to harass or threaten other members.

so doxing and threatening not making you feel good, i saw this member with only 100 post and 0 threads and become member of your group, you should be more careful when adding new members to the group man

Your argument is invalid. You are not allowed to walk up to someone and shoot him. That's murder. You are allowed to shoot someone that breaks into your house. That's self defence.

So, by the LEGAL definition of the word "harassment" : Harassment refers to words or behavior that threatens, intimidates, or demeans a person. Harassment is unwanted, uninvited, and unwelcome and causes nuisance, alarm, or substantial emotional distress without any legitimate purpose.

Allow me to say that, stealing 1500$ and then threatening to "get on a plane" and come find me, it's enough of a legitimate reason within itself.

Also, no. I shouldn't be more careful when adding members to my group. It's our group and we paid 5100$ for it for a reason. Reason for that is to do anything that we want with it. I shouldn't be more careful. I can do as I please with my group. You should be more careful to who you're dealing with. It's not my job to protect anyone. But, here I fucking am, still doing it. What does this say about me? Please.

why you think i plam you for his scam ! also yeh i know he threatening you and stole the money but just wanted to warn you from braking rules i am not admin or stuff member so no need to explain all of this to me but you should be more careful you don't pay money to make group and then add scammers to it , it's your group not your website and you should be responsible for the members you give them the access to your group cuz people trust your group name and yeh it's not your job to protect anyone and yet you are trying to this should be appreciated from those members

Take a look.

Also, it's not harassment, it's to build a legitimate lawsuit against a scammer. If the police releases someone's info to a prosecutor, is that harassment?

On topic though, anyone who feels the need for a middleman there are plenty of members on here that would gladly do it, heck I'd do it for free if it was someone I encounter on the site. The fact is, a lot of people on here are trying to find anyway they can to gain income, weather it's illegal methods or some gray areas, you gotta take every deal with caution and use all the tools available with you. And don't risk money you can't lose because even then someone can just decide to dip off the site.

Maybe we can see some sort of justice come from this though. I don't think there's much the police will do about it, but I'm hoping Illusion gets in trouble with the law for something.

I think a verified middlemen type of thing should be created if there isn't already. I've tried to find middlemen before and havent been able to on here.

It would stop a lot of the scams yes inevitably some of the verified middlemen will scam but its requirements should be high and it'd be a lot safer than trusting someone who hasn't had a track record in safely dealing big sums without scamming.

There's a couple people who offer middleman services here, I was thinking about offering a service myself now as well.

I don't think we should have a verified middleman service for the exact reason you just stated, inevitably they might scam themselves.

HF doesn't get involved with deals to begin with so this might bring some sort of liability to them.

I'm really surprised with all of these responses; thread was an interesting read and you have my full respect for offering and doing what you're doing for those effected by this exit scam. Not sure why people are acting like this isn't allowed when this is to proceed with legal action against money lost by him, I'm sure any site would promote this 'behavior' instead of punish those who are trying to do right by those who got scammed.

Another note, it's clear he's scared by this because he's changed his discord username to fake being a 'deleted user'.

Angela White - July 25, 2022, 2:45 pm

He's not posting the information and he was already closed. Omniscient puts the IP addresses and emails of some users when he closes their accounts, so what's the big deal about giving away the information of the scammer to people he's scammed so they can get their money back? He's no longer a member here, so it's fair game.

It's not like he's posting it publicly for EVERYONE to see, only the people impacted by the scam that have a good reason to need his information.

Illusion,also known as Micah An, was one of our members. Originally, he reached out to me for a problem I had. He helped me with it and I awarded him a spot to our group , Succubus , as an "honorary title". He is most likely diabetic. He lives in Georgia/ US. He is overweight, and he has some hand and face tattoos, most likely obtained from prison. Therefore, he is, most likely, affiliated with illegal activities and he, in fact, does not care about his, nor his family's well being. He is the worst kind of manipulator. He manipulated his wife, convinced her to stop talking to her Dad and enclosed her to an environment that he and only he can have authority over her.

What did he do?

As soon as he joined Succubus, knowing that the group's reputation is quite high, he had a plan in mind. To exit scam. I upgraded him to L33t, then to Ub3r, because I want all of my members to be at least Ub3r. Apparently, that benefited his cause, because he could boost his b-ratings more, even faster than before. And so he did.

After a couple of days of him building up his reputation, he exit scammed, stealing over 1500$ + , including SourceCode101 and my money as well.

How did we tackle this issue?

I warned him that he has three days to return the stolen funds to anyone that he stole from, or else, I would be sending the information I have to the police and to anyone that he stole from, so they can proceed to complete a formal report under his name.

Soon after, he added me on discord. Not only was he not apologetic but he started threatening me, saying that he can get on a plane and come find me, to which I replied that I am more than willing to welcome him with open arms...quite literally.

Conclusion

Unfortunately, he will not be returning any of the funds that he scammed. I tried to reason with him but to no avail. The best I can do now, is share all of his sensitive information privately to all of those that fell victims to his scams, so they can complete a formal report.

Guys, for the millionth time. Let that be a lesson for you. A hard one, but still a lesson. Do not trust new members with payments that big. Use the trust scan feature. Pay in smaller segments. Never deal off-site. Use a middleman, heck, he was one of my members, you can literally dm ME to be your middleman and I would do it free of charge. YOU, have ways to NOT get scammed. You just constantly fail to use them and it's upsetting. If you don't care for your money, how do you expect other people to care? Please, for the love of god, use precautions, so you don't end up falling victims of scams like this.

It reminds me that game tbh!It's very sad to see ppl which they was in prison to act like they didn't took their lesson.

It's just sad , especially when they have also a kid . I hate all those fathers which they are Egoist , and dont put above everything their family.I can't understand how some ppl are so idiots like him.Sad story once again , SIM-5198344 If you ever gonna read this , i hope to go back in prison , and another family gonna grab your kid to go in a better place , you don't deserve to have a family , hope your son will find a better family once you go back , there you belong.

Already i said to much words for such a pathetic father !Wish you to get a good lesson

Ok, I was wrong on them being closed but they are still "banned until further notice" with their account under investigation, with 2 valid scam reports and @Secret Achiever@ confirmed that they were scammed and that the scammer threatened them over Discord and has no intentions on giving the money back.

It is Omni's decision, but given no staff member has closed this thread or intervened, I'd say it's probably allowed; especially if it's only given to the victims of the scammer to get file legal action.

So, by the LEGAL definition of the word "harassment" : Harassment refers to words or behavior that threatens, intimidates, or demeans a person. Harassment is unwanted, uninvited, and unwelcome and causes nuisance, alarm, or substantial emotional distress without any legitimate purpose.

Allow me to say that, stealing 1500$ and then threatening to "get on a plane" and come find me, it's enough of a legitimate reason within itself.

Also, no. I shouldn't be more careful when adding members to my group. It's our group and we paid 4500$ for it for a reason. Reason for that is to do anything that we want with it. I shouldn't be more careful. I can do as I please with my group. You should be more careful to who you're dealing with. It's not my job to protect anyone. But, here I fucking am, still doing it. Let's get some things straight here

First things first

As far as any "legal action" goes you can submit a form and pay a fuck ton in fees to go to small claims court which I'll gladly go to no problem

Second thing I provided coding/dev services therefor if your not happy with the services then once again you may go to small claims court where I have documented each and every single one of my deals on here very detailed

I have No conducted in any way shape form or fashion any illegal activities what so ever any software that is made is solely for educational purposes only and you use at your own risk further more

However let's take a look at secret achiever

Looking for apple holders and Apple Pay account as our whole conversation is documented and a police report has been filed with my local authorities along with a "data breach submission to apple" there has been absolutely nothing illegal that has taken place and for anyone who has NOT received there program or development please kindly reach out to me these false allegations of me

“scamming” are incorrect scamming would be taking money and giving nothing what so ever and now that I am back like I said if anyone has not received what they needed kindly reach out to me! Also please let me tell everyone this since secret achiever failed to tell everyone how he scammed me out of $116

We did not use the contract system which was my fault however he paid for Apple Pay account and I delivered promptly however he said he would pay $200 and never did he scammed me first and I've waited awhile for the rest of the money then he proceeds to threaten my child he didn't tell you that because he don't want to damage his “reputation” he told me to refund people that I did not get the chance to even finish the work for and he said he would also send me the rest of the money he owed me and I told him take the money you owe me and give it to the people that you want refunded since you won't let me finish the work for them there is a lot he is not telling you only the part he wants to share only the parts to make me look bad to cover his own bullshit up this community dose not know the full story only the bullshit he created but why would he share that ? He did not want to send the money he owed me to me nor any HF member that did not get there projects done

So with that said if you'd like to proceed to small claims court please be my guest we can settle things there with my attorney

On the other hand as I've stated before if you are missing anything please reach out to me and I'll get to you in a timely manner

Again a police report has been filed for possible identity theft/ fraud and if it becomes a big enough issue we can have stuff subpoenaed

You may think what you want about me however there is way more than meets the eye for those to not judge so fast thank you

Also please let me tell everyone this since secret achiever failed to tell everyone how he scammed me out of $116

We did not use the contract system which was my fault however he paid for Apple Pay account and I delivered promptly however he said he would pay $200 and never did he scammed me first and I've waited awhile for the rest of the money then he proceeds to threaten my child he didn't tell you that because he don't want to damage his “reputation” he told me to refund people that I did not get the chance to even finish the work for and he said he would also send me the rest of the money he owed me and I told him take the money you owe me and give it to the people that you want refunded since you won't let me finish the work for them there is a lot he is not telling you only the part he wants to share only the parts to make me look bad to cover his own bullshit up this community dose not know the full story only the bullshit he created but why would he share that ? He did not want to send the money he owed me to me nor any HF member that did not get there projects done

So with that said if you'd like to proceed to small claims court please be my guest we can settle things there with my attorney

On the other hand as I've stated before if you are missing anything please reach out to me and I'll get to you in a timely manner

Again a police report has been filed for possible identity theft/ fraud and if it becomes a big enough issue we can have stuff subpoenaed

You may think what you want about me however there is way more than meets the eye for those to not judge so fast thank you

You don't get an attorney in small claims court unless both parties have one and approve of them. Take it from someone who's been there before ?

Fix your disputes and stop talking out of your ass, the fact that you didn't even know you can't have an attorney in small claims court unless both parties approve and both parties have an attorney leads me to believe that you don't even have one. Your "attorney" will be thrown out in court if the prosecutor doesn't have one or just simply says no.

Also, saying your malicious software is "for educational purposes" doesn't matter bro. How many HF members need to be arrested for you to realize that? NanoCore, Imminent Monitor, and a few crypters on here were sold for "educational / learning purposes" and that didn't stop the FBI from breaking down their door. Intent matters a FUCK ton more than whatever you state. You can't sell sketchy software or services on a HACKING forum and then claim your intent wasn't for people to use them for sketchy purposes.

#1. Depending on where someone lives small claims court costs are very low example where I live small claims court costs to file and serve you even if over state lines would cost me about $100.

#2. If you fail to appear I get an immediate default judgement and I can start fucking obliterating your credit.

#3. If you decide to defend yourself you either need to hire an attorney or show up yourself in the other state, You obviously are showing you are not very bright, as this would cost you hundreds or thousands of dollars. Which you don't get to recoup even if I lose.

Maybe if you've been to jail/prison you'd know a touch more about the law, regardless of if they can recoup the money by suing you. Having all your personal details out there is far more hazardous for your overall health.

Nope. I shared his information with the people that he scammed so they can proceed to legal action. I specifically said to both of them that I'd like to withhold any type of information regarding his child. I can prove this, anytime.

Please, when a claim is made, from a person who went on a scam spree, then proceeded to delete all of his previous discord accounts, then to "jump on a plane and find me", when a claim is made from a person like this, be skeptical of the claim.

More, if not all of his claims, were inaccurate or lies.

So, please.

The scammer can get sued and he will be sued from what i read, he won't go to prison for such a low amount but he will be in big troubles though, but children's well being are more important then a couple hundred bucks no matter how you twist it.

Children are children and those you don't touch or traumatize in any way, ever, his child didn't scam anyone.

Yeah, I got it the first time. Just seems like a comment that could be ignored if I'm being honest. Its not like DamienVC threatens peoples kids himself. Making such a comment kinda indicates to a father (in this case me, but could also have been Omniscient or anyone else who is a father reading this) that his state of mind supports such and would do such, he's the one making such a comment afterall.

On a serious note though, I only provided my quote as a reference, and haven't voiced any sort of support towards using children as leverage in any form or manner. I sincerely apologize then, i may have jumped the gun too quick, i just get so irritated and angry when innocent children are involved.

Just the thought of someone actually threatening and who knows what doing to a child, traumatizing that innocent soul and scarring him for life, because his father scammed a couple hundred bucks, knowing that someone here tried to normalize that, made my blood boil.

If you are a grown ass man then this is fucking sad af like open your eyes and smell the bullshit he's feeding you call me whatever i don't fucking care I am not gonna lie about my son ask him for proof I can promise you he won't show you or make some bullshit up but ooo he's reputable let's fucking now down and worship him he could never tell a lie right? He could never twist shit and make it look bad right? Of course not he's so so reputable so let's just take his word and bow down ... what a fucking joke I don't care if you don't believe me if I said the goddamn sky was blue and you didn't believe me fuck it idc but why and think about why would I lie about him threatening a 2 year old? For sympathy? That's a fucking joke fuck sympathy and fuck the rest of the bullshit I simply said that to expose the low life pos he is not for fucking sympathy not to turn the table and damn sure not for anything else but the soul purpose to show you that the all mighty fuck you are defending so goddamn much is a low life evil fucking pos the only fucking person on here with common goddamn since is Bullup even if you don't believe which is on you but I am telling the truth god as my witness but he's the only one who sees the bigger picture but the rest of y'all get your fucking head out your ass open your eyes fuck call me whatever you want I do not fucking c a r e...

But a child? What the actual fuck is wrong with you all? This sick twisted sadistic bastard threatened my child ... and you defend him? I don't want anyone to fucking defend me by all means I am not perfect at all and idc but GET WOKE!!! Y'all fucking trippin

Dude is a actually fucking low life attacking me is one thing he has not told no one on this form a goddamn thing kinda funny how he has not shared any of our conversations huh? Wonder why?

Take a wild mother fucking guess!! Jesus Christ use your fucking heads some of y'all are grown ass men use common sense since he don't wanna tell how he scammed me for $116 he don't wanna tell how he threatened a innocent child why? Because of his precious reputation

Bullup you may think I am a huge fucking dick bag and that's perfectly understandable but I still salute you for what you said how it's wrong to threaten children despite what you may think of me you a good person and see the bigger picture

The rest idk but I hope one day they open their eyes he is not all sunshine and rainbows cuz at the end of his fake ass rainbow is a pile of shit that he lays in covering up the full story and just targeting me

Secret achiever if your reading this tell them the truth you fucking coward don't be a bitch man the fuck up let them know what you really are what you really do behind HF grow some balls tell the FULL story of what happened you wanna fucking hide like a pussy in Europe behind a screen because of your precious reputation right? You could never own up to your bullshit and you know and I know you won't but guess who has to live with his self knowing he threatened a child!

TLDR you're capable of providing proof yourself as well.

(Aug 8, 2022 07:19 PM)Illusion Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Let's get some things straight here

First things first

Second thing I provided coding/dev services therefor if your not happy with the services then once again you may go to small claims court where I have documented each and every single one of my deals on here very detailed

I have No conducted in any way shape form or fashion any illegal activities what so ever any software that is made is solely for educational purposes only and you use at your own risk further more

However let's take a look at secret achiever

Looking for apple holders and Apple Pay account as our whole conversation is documented and a police report has been filed with my local authorities along with a "data breach submission to apple" there has been absolutely nothing illegal that has taken place and for anyone who has NOT received there program or development please kindly reach out to me these false allegations of me "scamming" are incorrect scamming would be taking money and giving nothing what so ever and now that I am back like I said if anyone has not received what they needed kindly reach out to me! Also please let me tell everyone this since secret achiever failed to tell everyone how he scammed me out of $116

We did not use the contract system which was my fault however he paid for Apple Pay account and I delivered promptly however he said he would pay $200 and never did he scammed me first and I've waited awhile for the rest of the money then he proceeds to threaten my child he didn't tell you that because he don't want to damage his "reputation" he told me to refund people that I did not get the chance to even finish the work for and he said he would also send me the rest of the money he owed me and I told him take the money you owe me and give it to the people that you want refunded since you won't let me finish the work for them there is a lot he is not telling you only the part he wants to share only the parts to make me look bad to cover his own bullshit up this community dose not know the full story only the bullshit he created but why would he share that ? He did not want to send the money he owed me to me nor any HF member that did not get there projects done

So with that said if you'd like to proceed to small claims court please be my guest we can settle things there with my attorney

On the other hand as I've stated before if you are missing anything please reach out to me and I'll get to you in a timely manner

Again a police report has been filed for possible identity theft/ fraud and if it becomes a big enough issue we can have stuff subpoenaed

You may think what you want about me however there is way more than meets the eye for those to not judge so fast thank you

I want my money back regarding the "program" I hired you to build that you definitely made up to scam me.

EDIT: your little bitch fit about someone threatening your child had nothing to do with me or the other people you scammed.

Yet you somehow roll it all up in one like it's somehow my fucking problem that you are in a catfight with another grown man.

Your excuses make no fucking sense. Why does you getting scammed for $116 justify you stealing over $1500, including $250 from me. I did nothing to you, gave you repeat business and vouched for you as much as possible. Makes this make sense? You say you didnt scam anyone? You must have some good weed then.. You blatantly scammed me and I want the funds back. Not like I haven't written them off yet but still you said you aren't a scammer so let's put it to the test.

SecretAchiever101 - August 15, 2022, 8:29 am

? know that I don't have to do that. However, for anyone doubting me, let me provide some evidence

As you can see. Both of the guys that messaged me regarding the scam, I, willing, disclosed any type of information regarding his kid.

I am not mob. I am a businessman. All I want is for this to get resolved as peacefully as possible, however, I am not a fool either.

If, he needs legal action in order for him to get some discipline, then, I'm up for it.

As, I previously stated, he threatened to come and find me, my response to that is please, do so. I am going to welcome him with open arms. Literally, open arms.

However, please, you are all getting into random arguments about the morality of the situation. That's what he wants. As I previously stated, he is a very manipulative person and you're falling into his trap. That's what he's trying to achieve. Stray away the conversation from the scams he has done and focus on random things.

Don't get played. Instead of doing that, let's focus on one thing.

- Has he resolved his disputes?

The answer is no. Not yet.

So, until he has, let's focus on that.

PS:

Illusion, You're talking about 116$ that I owe you. You scammed SourceCode101 for more than 300$.

Please, refund him his money and when you've done so, reach out to me, I will send you 200$ not 116$.

Deal?

Fix your disputes. No one cares about your kid. However if you're unable to raise a child, you realise there are foster homes ?

I feel more sorry about your child as you need scam HF members just to feed them it seems.

From a neutral POV:

OP a retard for adding a NEW member to his group + upgrading

Scammer a retard for scamming

money gone, wont come back

Forgive me, old friend, but <https://imgur.com/1dMfW0H> I'm happy you were able to collect evidence from this point onward. Or perhaps you began beforehand?

I would consider you and your group not in any way accountable for the members' actions. You are going above and beyond.

? was suspicious. However, you telling me to look more into it, that alarmed me way more, that's true. Thanks for that.

SIM-5198344 You have yet to resolve your scams. Another guy approached me telling me he paid you and you scammed him. So I give you the benefit of the doubt, I told him to wait a week. Your week is due to Sunday.

If you don't resolve your disputes till then, I will provide him with your information as well.

If you reply to this comment, reply with a "Yes I resolved them" , or "No, I didn't resolve them, nor do I intent to do so". Anything other than that, I am not going to read. Also, if you don't stay on topic and start saying random stuff again, I will consider it as a "No, I didn't resolve them, nor do I intent to do so".

He has no intentions on resolving them. Notice how he tried to flip the script and make you guys look bad?

This whole time he could have provided "proof" himself but didn't do so.

Cyam - August 23, 2022, 9:13 am

I don't understand.

He helped you with a problem you had. Either it was a hell of a problem, or he is a master manipulator if he got leet, uber, and spot in your group for the provided help.

Nope, unfortunately, he does not intent to do so.

I do not understand your point. I mentioned above, he helped me with a problem of mine and I awarded him the spot, as a honorary title for helping me. I upgraded him because he was a part of our team and I want all members of our team to be at least uber.

No, the problem was not that difficult. Nor did he "manipulate" me to join. I offered him the spot and the upgrades out of appreciation that he helped me.

It's that simple, really.
