I gotta rep black Isz until I die, it's a requirement if you a shooter for pink ? But I'm serious about y'all bein allowed to use Eden as a base of operations if you want. I know at this point, there isn't much need for that but I always liked being able to use TA and BK for working on threads back in the day. Just lmk, whoever's in the crew will get added to the group so long as they aren't on the blacklist.

The man who posted in SRPP "AMA with a pedophile."

Truly a classic

I just want to point out aF was a fucking joke of a group, I'd put it right there next to Heroes. The only time anime ever was successfully implemented into a group was Studio.
