Been on this forum forever it feels like. Good friends with a few of you, probably had problems with just as many. Regardless, offering a free MM service as I see scams from poor kids on here still run rampant.

Why offer it for free? I don't need 5% or 10% of deals, it's really not worth the money if I were doing it purely for that.

Why trust me? Been on HF since 2014, loads of services I've run (exchanging, assignment service, NFTs, etc.)

That about sums it up. If you guys need someone to MM a deal for you just hmu. Only ever going to hold crypto as I won't be getting CBed on nor will I be liable for securing accounts.

Well since most will see this if he's not on me and Gary both will also do this. That gives them 3 people to pick from. Hopefully it covers most of the time zone on HF.

Congrats, you found resolved disputes when I opened a service with a partner who then took the funds from his stressing service and didn't provide anything (which I then refunded them all out of my own pocket for) AND a contact I sold who sold Amazon GCs and then scammed (after others had used him just fine).

I'd say 99% of the people here who know the both of us for an ample amount of time would put plenty of trust in me. I don't need shitty HF group ownership to prove that or get social status on a dead forum like some others do. My long-standing presence and rep speaks for itself.

Nobody on this thread needs to scam out, let alone for a few thousand $s lol.

To please you Scrub, I can close this and just let noobs get scammed more, just lmk!
