I paid him $318 for the deal. Before this one, we had 2 small deals, all took some time, but he told me the last one would be fast, so far I'm waiting, stalking his profile for 90 minutes, checking CE section, and opening new contracts so I'm super worried, so making this just in case

Please refund me if this takes longer, I don't want to wait more :(You said it'd be a fast deal
He closed his CE thread after asking me to vouch (for the previous deals) I Got scammed, fuck

Update: 2 hours, he's scrolling all CE posts, idk.....

An hour ago he said "Sending now", people like him are the worst.

His CashApp:
$hickeySmoke
$MadisonMoran2019

UPDATE:

He scammed $450 in total if I'm correct, it's not enough to worth his account:

Apparently because I didn't follow his instructions, now can't get my money

Anyone have a screenshot of him bragging about scamming $1k in chat?

He tried to scam me out of $325, glad I didn't bite.

How smoothly did everything go for you, buddy? Before vouching for someone, please complete the actual deal and then post rather than vouching for such people. Sorry for your loss

Eran - July 26, 2022, 12:58 am

Sorry for the loss. Doubt you'll get it back. I'd check his newly opened contracts and PM everyone he starts a contract with about this scam.

Beherit - July 26, 2022, 2:01 am

Sorry to see an honest exchanger get scammed. I retract my statement on Blunt He is not a g.

Thanks for the honest exchanges we've shared over the years.

First 2 deals were fine, he scammed me on the 3rd contract, that's why I opened only one dispute to avoid getting warned for nothing.

Not to mention I reported my own post to be deleted.

I did the same, including the group leaders to warn them

Thank you bud. Sadly, there are people like them. He gained my trust on the first contracts but was stupid enough to throw everything for just $400 ($318 from me and $80 from another user)

Vendor, uber, leet, awards, and group subscription, everything he spent wasn't worth it.

The only reason I went first when he had half of my b rates was because of his vendor upgrade :(

Rionxee - July 26, 2022, 2:21 am

Here we go again, interested to see how this plays out.

Sys-3200 - July 26, 2022, 5:45 am

I knew this was coming at some point, from the moment he tried to scam me for a miserable 60 bucks around a month ago, hoping that I, as a "noob", wouldn't have opened a contract. A few people here already know the story, I tried to spread the word ( <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6173467&pid=61495743#pid61495743>)but sadly I was dealing on Discord so not much proof to give out.

Sorry for your loss, OP.

What a great day to be high quality.

Thank you for keeping the marketplace safe for Billie Joe.

Now we can carry on business as usual and hope this idiot Blunt responds.

Cheers and Thanks

Any update? Did he claim you were laundering money as well lol??

(Jul 28, 2022 09:49 PM)Gary Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Any update? Did he claim you were laundering money as well lol??

After 2 days, he claimed that (since he didn't scam enough money)

He said "sending now" and disappeared for a whole day.

His cashapp works just fine after he claimed it's banned. Try to send him a money request to see yourself.

And for last, if he is paranoid and genuinely thinks what he said, which is lame excuses to not be banned, there is a Refund option, but no he kept my money, so bullshit, he is just sad for not scamming enough to worth his account. He told me if I close the disputes, he'd pay me back but no way until I see my money.

I forgot to say one more thing, while I was waiting for my money, he checked all CE posts without responding to my messages.

Anyone with enough logic can understand what happens.
Until now he was avoiding me.

You would be dumb to close the dispute before he paid you back. Probably wants to scam more.

I love his excuses so far though. Robin Hood headass.
