It has been over 6hours I made payment for ByteCrypter but until now it has not been activated and when I followed the proceed he gave me in activating my License I found out that I am being taken to another web page that is selling another crypter below is the URL

[deleted]

there is sayings its for licensign of aegisCrypter meanwhile on Hacksforum Bytecrypter was advertised. Everything it talks about on the supposed licensing refers to a diffirent product asking me to fund account to buy aegisCrypter whereas I haeve not gotten value for the $35 I paid for Bytecrypter.

Please look into this and advise.

Thanks

You aren't understanding even the simplest of the things. And I am NOT Related to Aegis in any way, they just have a licensing system available which MANY PEOPLE use in their products, that's about all.

Anyways, I have already got in touch with you. I will resolve this out.
