Ah damn that's just fucking annoying.

2012 was interesting times for sure. People were way too happy to randomly swat kids for actually no reason.

I'm glad that trend is over for the most part

Well you should still upload some freestyles, maybe if you have some of the old info you can PM omni and try to recover it.

By far the most fucked up thing to do. It's crazy how quickly it escalated too. Like, DOS'ing people wasn't enough to flex, so nerds resorted to almost killing off their competition.
