Thread: Desperate Last Resort Seeking Help

Fata - August 9, 2022, 3:47 am

Hi all.

I've been involved in crypto for a very long time and for a while there I thought I had financial freedom.

Basically why I'm here is I lost my entire trading account because I blew it up when I was tilted and upset. Close to 7 figures worth.

The best thing is I owe 6 figures in taxes and I took a loan to chase my losses.

I keep digging myself a hole.

So yeah I really got no way out.

If there's someone out there willing to help me make good money to turn my life around please DM or reach out to me.

I am at rock bottom and desperate.

good luck on your endeavors.
You're right...

There's no sugar coating my situation.

Luckily I do have a physical job but I am looking for additional income

You may be at Bikini Bottom but you're still alive and well. So, let's get them trades in and hopefully things work out.
