Hello, I've been doing this for 10 years or so before I even knew it was called E whoring. I have always been good with social engineering so getting repeat customers was never much of an issue for me. I feel like I have a wealth of knowledge available to share with anyone trying to earn a serious income doing this. I'm just not sure where to start. Please; ask me anything!

I will reply as soon as I get a chance!

Hello my friend, I think you would do best buying Reddit accounts that are already karmad up.

No, I'm getting into the business of making the upvotes, aka i would be having accounts with karma myself if i wanted, you totally missed the point, maybe you dont know how reddit works?

I misread, lack of sleep will do that to you lol

But to answer your question yes, it definitely fits the niche. It can help you get soooo much more traffic but you need to be careful not to upvote to much as to raise suspicion obviously. I used to have my posts on /r/sexsells upvoted and it helped immensely.

You need verification on some of them before even posting though
