Thread: Your Favorite Quote

Hey,

Do you guys have a favorite quote, or a quote that genuinely made an impact on your life?

For me it's 'if you want to succeed as bad as you want to breathe, you will become successful.'

There's a full story behind the quote for anybody interested. Am looking forward to your answers!

I'm not really the guy that goes off by quotes, but there was a quote that came across a few years ago.

And it goes something like this;

You can; you will
You can't; you won't

Those words really resonate with me
And i have carried this logic with me all through the years!

Haha speaking about motivational quotes/videos is always cringe to most people, but they do work even for me, not really a quote but a line that most people refer though always gets me whenever I feel like giving up-

"It ain't about how hard you hit. It's about how hard you can get hit and keep moving forward; how much you can take and keep moving forward. That's how winning is done!"

Always manages to pick me up when I'm in the rut.

Very nice saying for sure. Overall I'm not the guy going off by quotes either, don't get me wrong. It's just that some quotes stick with me.

It is cringe to me sometimes, but certain ones stick with me. The quote you mentioned is a very nice one indeed.

"The best way to predict the future is to create it"

Makes me have a productive mindset.

I have one. I don't know if it's my favorite, but it's definitely the one I use the most, since I use it everytime my girlfriend gets a mosquito bite or something small like that.

"Pain is temporary. It may last for a minute, or an hour, or a day, or even a year - but eventually, it will subside; and something else will take it's place. If I quit, however - it will last forever."

That one is very good for people with stress when building a business, or something related. Thanks!

"hakuna matata" - Pumba oldie but goodie

And "if you can slice the problem then why worry, and if you can't, why worry?"

Two phrases I live by.

Me and my family members use Hakuna Matata a lot, the other quote is very nice as well!

Hmm, seems a bit farfetched to me personally. I mean even communist countries / dictatorships in the past have politicians.
