I guess you can start by being active on the forum as well. And read the rules. All CAPS text, provided your personal info on a thread. All are to be refrained from.

So hence people judging you.

As for the method start a convo with me or PM me the method, i will check it out and then post here what i feel :)

Ive been away from HF for a long time... 25 threads to PM people is a little overkill. Can you respond to PM's?, but not initiate them?

Update your thread with your contact info. I don't have telegram

For OP, why don't you just upload the method txt on sites and share the link here.

Then you can open discussing for your mentoring.

By the way OP you could also attach the method via TEXT file, and charge users a set amount of BYTES per download of the method.. a tad easier than having people contact you on 3rd party software/sites.

Cheers,
