I wanted to get some friends over to chill in the backyard but it didn't happen. Weekday in the summer, everyone sort of busy. No big deal.

Thanks guys. Was a decent birthday. My golf round was AMAZING. I hit my best game in at least a year with a 79 at Bears Best. Nailed 3 birdies.

Enjoyed evening around some friends at the bar, had some Macallan 18, smoked a fine cigar (Oliva Melanio Serie V Churchill) and watched some MLB.

Overall, a fine day. :)

So now it's time to get back to work.

Glad to hear it bossman, we all deserve that one time a year where we can just relax and take time away.

The golf round sounds like it was a birthday present in itself lol.
