I need it to "verify my identity" on a marketplace I want to join.

You don't have to give me the credentials, I only need your permission to link your profile to my account and receive a confirmation code if need be.

PM me your price.

I have an account that has 30,000 followers which I can provide if you have the write budget.

I'd probably charge about 3000$ for access to said "Meta" Account.

You're a year late, pal, and you need to reconsider that price; for $3000 I can buy an account with 10 times the followers.
