This scammer should be permanently banned from the site!

Absolutely disgusting person, I hope he will get ban so he doesn't lure any more people with his fake reputation.

MentorPEN added me through private message on the site to offer me a service. It's regarding Riot Points. We talked about everything, I explained exactly what I need and he said he will deliver everything that I need, and the price was set on 240$ BTC. After I've sent him money, he stated that he will finish everything that evening and stopped responding afterwards. He responded in the morning that he will deliver in the evening, which of course didn't happen and he completely decided to ignore me. It's already been 4 days now and he doesn't respond to me so money went to waste. I have export of our whole chat, I have recorded the whole chat also just in case, I have record of him offering me his service in a private message on the site and sending me his Discord to contact him. I don't really know how the system works on this site, as I am new member, but I sure hope he will get permanent ban for being a scammer.

I'm out 240$. He stole that money from me. As I said, if needed I will provide all the proof needed!

He hasn't been on in a couple days now either.

He also had two open disputes before you dealt with him.

Sorry for your loss.

Quick tip how to trade safely in the forum :

-If someone has open disputes like him -avoid dealing with him or use MM at any cost.

yea bro, thx for heads up, I feel kinda dumb that I didn't do proper research both on site and on him and it's my mistake I guess. Also the element of excitement of finally finding the 'right person to deal with' took over my common sense. I just hope the guy gets perma in the near future!

If you're expecting him to get banned, you're out of luck. He'll remain on the site and it'll be up to the community to give him negative rep. Most people wont because they don't want him giving negative rep back. Its a fucked system, but its kind of a wild wild west.

I'm more alarmed that you joined a forum and spent $230 in btc on your very first trade before even having 5 posts.
