a while ago I was subscribed to a lot of EW discords. long story short I decided to quit them all but now I can't retrieve any invitations on the usual websites does someone know a way to get back to these EW discords? thank you :)

No. They are still there and doing pretty well. Why you left those servers?

Discord servers are against HF rules, so you won't find any here.

Join free Telegram groups but don't expect anything special from them, most are filled with beginners who spam the same 5 questions all the time.
