Thread: Anyone remember the website "liveleak.com"? And do you know any alternatives?

Cyber Criminal - September 14, 2022, 1:49 pm

I use to use liveleak but they changed it to itemfix haven't really used that one though.

Any good websites for interesting videos?

Worldstarhiphop and liveleak are all I have used. I don't know why I don't try and get used to reddit. I guess I can't focus on anything right now and feel good about it.

Kaotic.com, beware, there is a lot of porn and gore. But it's pretty much like liveleak.

Livewire - September 14, 2022, 2:11 pm

I used to browse it. There are some alts but I forgot the names honestly.

Isn't motherless an option? I haven't used it in a while but I think it's a good alternative.

Damn, this is pretty similar to LiveLeak in terms of they'll host what seems like anything.

Thanks for the share.

After taking a look at Motherless, it just seems like a gross kink porn site and/or random weird porn site. Definitely not a LiveLeak alternative based on what I just saw especially on their home page and "Trending" page.

I remember coming across theYNC when I was younger. Definitely wouldn't recommend unless you're into gore and other unusual shit. But yeah I remember liveleak too, did they shut down?

There's nothing wrong with watching talibans crashing left behind US aircraft, cause they have no clue how to fly them ?

I had no idea it was shutdown. Liveleak was great.
