User Tried to scam me & justify his 3 other open scam reports saying they were carding. If they were carding why would you keep their money ? KNEW nothing about SEO & prices but hmu on Skype to get $12 out of me. BE AWARE OF THIS SCAMMER. His Deal Disputes say it all

Sounds like the typical shit you hear from these bums.

"Oh its laundered money" "Oh its carded funds" then why keep the funds ???

No reason for MentorPEN to be asking for pocket change while he has open deal disputes. If anything the money received should be going back to the people who allegedly used carded funds.

Yep exactly , thinks he's dealing with little kids lol. Story doesn't add up. I'm just glad I made contract and didn't send him anything.

Rule #1 on Hf : If someone hits you up on Skype first before HF, most likely a scam. Always verify their account and trust factors
