I don't use telegram, but if you're open to chatting on site. I want to give it a go. I need some fresh practice, if I don't get anything don't worry about paying.

If you're interested send me a convo, we can talk more there before starting a contract. No promises on success.

Nah, I'm just not going to sign up for a service I have no intention on using. You were offered a good deal, and didn't want it.

There will be someone willing to fulfill your request just wait it out.

I was offered no good deal, I am the one offering jobs here and you're a 1 or 30 that have messaged me regarding my offering

You're looking for a job complaining what apps you use and what not?
Who the fuck cares what you use dummy you're the one getting interviewed here

This is completely redundant. Interviewed? Lol, I don't do interviews. No ones going to compete for something like this when you're probably paying penuts, enjoy your power trip ignoramus you're just showing potential sellers what kind of a client you are, and how much of a pain in the ass you will be to deal with.

Good luck, don't quote me again.

You're a joke. "Get your bum ass out of this forum". "I pay my people more than you've ever earned in your life".
