Hi, I am new here, I am in no way a hacker, but fascinated of people who are, and got recently scammed?... So I am here to talk to people who could give me tips or connect with people who even would help me get the scammed amount back. I will go the official route with police and so on, but I heard its very slow if they ever do anything. Sorry for my english its not my native language

So if you read this feel free to connect with me, even if its not to help with the mentioned...

If the benefits are non sexual and I don't have to look at your butt or something, I'm down.
