Nonsense, plenty of coins which go +20% as well regularly, bear market or not, learn your crypto.

Also if you only got $100 to invest then 2-5% isn't much no, which i assume you do based on your comment and the way you clearly think.

However if you got $10,000 - $100,000 to invest like most people do in crypto then that 2-5% is $200/$500 - $2,000-$5,000 per short term investment, do that daily and that 10k or 100k is +25% rather quickly.

Don't shit on people's services (who btw charge very little at that) only because you don't have the resources in life to benefit from it properly.

I'm not shitting on the thread I'm just confused unless you are reselling another service calls and plays. No I only say that because HF Is full of kids. But bro you are talking about the same coins that pump every month on kucoin top gainers. Risky plays. And since this service is so cheap I doubt anyone who joins this is working with 1k - 100k like really? You need vouches for that kind of trust and for people to be dependable on you.

How could he be reselling if he charges only $5.. Also if you checked his other threads you would have known he is into TA's heavily, he isn't just reselling calls.

He has vouches for his crypto related services, and vouches for this thread doesn't happen instantly, he just released this thread and has to build it up.

Also you are contradicting yourself, first you say that in bear market cryptos can only increase 2-5% and now you admit that i'm right that there are cryptos pumping big here and there, wether it is risky or not that is besides the point, the entire crypto market is risky, always.

Give the guy some slack will ya, he tries his best and this is actually a pretty unique and smart HF service with a very cheap price tag which easily turns into profits, compared to the usual ebook sales thread i love these kind of threads that OP offers here and this is exactly what HF needs.

He tries to build a long term income on HF in a honest manner and i love to see that.

Keep going with what you are trying to do OP you got my support 100%

Overall trend is bearish however our aim to scalp or day trade. Get in and get out before sleeping . Do you think people haven't traded for 8 months ? There is so many opportunities.

That guy clearly doesn't know how the market functions.

He probably thinks price just go straight down. Plenty of opportunities no matter the market condition.

Wondering if you also offer this service for fx pairs?

murt - October 7, 2022, 8:36 am

Of course. Price action works in all markets. Actually markets work in price action
