Thread: Earn Bitcoin by Completing Tasks! Free 10,000 Satoshi! | Earningco.in

A10247 - September 30, 2022, 3:48 pm

I've started up a website, www.earningco.in

You can create an account for free and start earning BTC by completing surveys or downloading apps.

The site is brand new so I'm gonna need more members, as an incentive to get new members to join I'm crediting new accounts with 10,000 free Satoshi.

Just create an account and post your username here.

What is the average earning per hour ?

Wilmer - October 3, 2022, 5:45 am

Some other sites with this premise are notorious for not paying you for the offers you complete. Have you made a better platform? If so then I'll recommend this to people on the other sites. Going to check it out first though. Account name Wilmer.

That web design is atrocious.

If you want to make that website bring you money long-term I suggest getting a proper job done on the website itself. I'm only saying this because I would turn away as soon as I'd land on this website because of how scammy it looks.

I'm not, however saying that it doesn't pay out or anything so don't think I'm trying to hurt your business. <3 what's pay rate also as cyam said, work on the site.

All withdrawals are paid within 24-48 hours by me.

If you mean not being credited by an offerwall then I have no control over how they run their offers.

They have been tested though and if you complete an offer you will be credited.

Why?

I messaged you about this but our offer walls have been tested and are currently working, so the site is functioning properly atm.

You can earn points by completing offers. The points of which roughly translate to 0.3 satoshis per point. Some offers payout over +100000 points.

You can also earn satoshis through referrals.

Do you have an ad block plugin in your browser and is it turned on?

There are no pop-ups or malicious ads on the site. Some ad-blockers may block the offers and or survey redirects.
